RESEARCHING THE RESEARCHER'S RESEARCH

It was not until the early 1970s that the word "research" was used in a systematic way. Before that, the word "research" was used in a more general sense, often referring to the process of discovery or the search for knowledge.

One of the earliest uses of the word "research" in a systematic way was in the 19th century, when it was used to describe the process of discovery or the search for knowledge.

A more modern use of the word "research" is in the 20th century, when it was used to describe the process of discovery or the search for knowledge.

Researcher's research is the process of discovery or the search for knowledge.
