Essais sur la littérature française, écrits pour l'usage d'une dame étrangère, compatriote de l'auteur Quintin Craufurd,1818 The French Invention of Menopause and the Medicalisation of Women's Ageing Alison M. Downham Moore,2022-10-06 Doctors writing about menopause in France vastly outnumbered those in other cultures throughout the entire nineteenth century The concept of menopause was invented by French male medical students in the aftermath of the French Revolution becoming an important pedagogic topic and a common theme of doctors professional identities in postrevolutionary biomedicine Older women were identified as an important patient cohort for the expanding medicalisation of French society and were advised to entrust themselves to the hygienic care of doctors in managing the whole era of life from around and after the final cessation of menses However menopause owed much of its conceptual weight to earlier themes of women as the sicker sex of vitalist crisis of the vapours and of astrological climacteric years This is the first comprehensive study of the origins of the medical concept of menopause richly contextualising its role in nineteenth century French medicine and revealing the complex threads of meaning that informed its invention It tells a complex story of how women's ageing featured in the demographic revolution in modern science in the denigration of folk medicine in the unique French field of hygiene and in the fixation on women in the emergence of modern psychiatry It reveals the nineteenth century French origins of the still current medical and alternative health approaches to women's ageing as something to be managed through gynaecological surgery hormonal replacement and lifestyle intervention

Essai sur l'âge de l'adolescence, considéré chez les deux sexes Jean FOURNET (M.D., of Paris.), 1804 Essais sur la littérature française à l'usage des étrangères Quintin Craufurd, 1818 Essai sur les écoles de garçons tenues par des femmes, 1866 The Invention of Female Biography Gina Luria Walker, 2017-10-30

Mary Hays worked alone in compiling the 302 entries that make up Female Biography 1803 By contrast producing a modern critical edition of the work relied on the expertise of 168 scholars across 18 countries Essays in this collection focus on the exhaustive research editorial challenges and innovative responses involved in this project

Essais sur l'art et le goût David Hume, 2010 Nous ne cessons d'apprécier des objets nous leur donnons de la valeur nous les disons beaux ou laids La beauté ou la laideur ne sont donc pas des qualités réelles des choses Mais ce sentiment qui est le nôtre est causé par des qualités qui sont bien réelles dans les choses De sorte que la nature humaine étant assez ordinaire parmi les hommes il n'est pas vain de rechercher dans les matières du goût et plus particulièrement dans les matières littéraires des lois générales qu'on peut figurer dans des modèles choisis ou représentés sur un mode critique dans une règle du goût L'argument de Hume est simple mais offre de nombreuses analyses fort subtiles On en suit la progression avec bonheur dans ces essais magnifiquement écrits par leur auteur

Women, Equality, and the French Revolution Candice E. Proctor, 1990-10-24 This volume represents the first book length study of attitudes toward women in revolutionary France Based on extensive research in the libraries and archives of Paris the book examines the impact of the Revolution's ideology of liberty and equality When the men of 1789 wrote the Declaration of the Rights of Man they were thinking in terms of man the male not man the species But there were some men and women who interpreted it in terms of all humanity The outrage of these individuals over what they perceived as a discrepancy between the principles and the practice of the Revolution motivated them to produce some of the most unhesitating declarations of sexual equality that had ever been seen in history Dr Proctor demonstrates however these claims of equality were not simply ignored they were categorically rejected by the mainstream revolutionaries The book examines the typical 18th century concept of women as alien and in some ways inferior beings and traces the striking continuity between pre Revolutionary and Revolutionary thought on the subject Against this background Proctor addresses a number of important questions How widespread was the support for a movement in favor of sexual equality What was the response of the Revolution itself to demands for equal rights for women How did the men of the French Revolution justify the contradiction between their suppression of women and the ideologies for which they claimed to be fighting To arrive at the answers an abundance of material produced in France in the 18th century is identified and analyzed and cited in an extensive bibliography of original sources What finally emerges is not only a clearer picture of the French Revolution and its attitude toward women but a deeper understanding of the ambivalent attitudes toward women that still affect our society today This book will be an important resource for courses in European history the French Revolution and women s studies as well as a valuable reference for college university and public libraries Essai sur les moeurs des habitans modernes de l'Égypte Gilbert Joseph Gaspard comte de Chabral de Volvic,1826 1790, opuscules ,1831 Essai sur l'histoire du théâtre Germain Bapst,1893 Sentimental Savants Meghan K.
