

Final Exam Essay (25% of Final Exam)

Write an essay, about three or four pages, about one of the major civilizations studied this semester in which you answer the questions listed below. The civilization will be chosen by the instructor for the exam. The possible civilizations are: Mesopotamian (up to Persia), Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Jewish, Christian, Indian, Chinese, Islamic, and Early Western European. Students must be prepared for all of the above civilizations as the exam choice will not be known before the exam itself.

This exam will test the student's achievement of the main expectation for this course, namely a general understanding of the above civilizations.

1) What are its striking distinctive features or patterns -- by contrast with other civilizations?

2) Explain these distinctive patterns starting from the circumstances of its original establishment (geographical circumstances and the mode of life of its original inhabitants).

3) Show how these original circumstances are connected with

a) the basic technology,

b) the social-economic system,

c) the political system and

d) the spiritual culture: discuss major authors and texts from the Primary Source Readers and explain how they reflect these conditions. How are certain basic characteristics of this society and history reflected in these works?

4) Describe one major event in its history, and explain how this can be illuminated by reference to the above basic patterns of society.

--Remember that this is a comparative essay and that you should compare and contrast this society with other civilizations you have studied in order help to show its distinctiveness

Faculty Misconduct in Collegiate Teaching John M. Braxton, Alan E. Bayer, 2003-04-30 In Faculty Misconduct in Collegiate Teaching higher education researchers John Braxton and Alan Bayer address issues of impropriety and misconduct in the teaching role at the postsecondary level Braxton and Bayer define and examine norms of teaching behavior what they are how they come to exist and how transgressions are detected and addressed Do faculty members across various collegiate settings for example share views about appropriate and inappropriate teaching behaviors as they share expectations regarding actions related to research And what mechanisms are utilized to correct inappropriate behavior on the part of college and university teachers The authors work is based on survey results obtained from faculty members at research universities liberal arts colleges and two year community junior and technical colleges Braxton and Bayer s focus is on undergraduate teaching in four disciplines biology history mathematics and psychology In their analyses the authors examine how individual disciplinary and institutional differences influence professorial behavior In contrast to the more explicitly understood and enforced rules of conduct in research the authors find that teaching norms are informally defined and observed They argue that a formal code of ethics for undergraduate teaching would serve the dual purpose of improving undergraduate education and elevating the status of college teaching A groundbreaking study of contemporary academe Faculty Misconduct in Collegiate Teaching is required reading for all university and college instructors and administrators
