Forthare University Application Form:

The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss      The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1916      Bantoe-onderwysblad , 1978      The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them      The Athenaeum , 1901      The Athenæum , 1919      Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa      Livelihoods and Landscapes Paul Hebinck, Peter Lent, 2007-07-30 Drawing on original data secondary literature aerial photographs and archives this book analyzes changes in the use of the landscape and the nature of rural livelihoods in two South African villages Taking an interdisciplinary approach on how livelihoods and landscapes in the Eastern Cape link the text provides a comprehensive study of the patterns of land use over time Three separate chapters focus on cropping and cultivation practices livestock and foraging as well as the gathering of wild plants The book gives a vivid picture of the social dynamics and the interaction between urban and rural It depicts the steady deterioration in agricultural production and the corresponding increase in dependence on social grants and wages Despite this trend remnants of a peasantry do exist      Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management Shava, Elvin, Ndebele, Nduduzo, 2024-07-10 The advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has created a pressing need for digital transformation in human resources management HRM in public institutions Traditional practices must be updated preventing institutions from effectively managing their workforce and meeting stakeholder demands The lack of digitalization leads to inefficiencies ineffective performance evaluation and an inability to adapt to the rapidly evolving technological landscape This gap between existing HR practices and the demands of the digital age poses a significant challenge for public sector organizations Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management offers a comprehensive solution to the challenges faced by public institutions The book provides practical insights and strategies for aligning HR practices with the modern technological landscape by exploring how digital transformation can revolutionize HRM processes It demonstrates the benefits of adopting digital technologies and innovative strategies in public sector HRM through real world examples and case studies The book guides public sector professionals policymakers and academics helping them navigate the complexities of digital transformation in HRM      Annual Report on Basutoland Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations, 1959      Basutoland Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations, 1946      My career, 1986      Educational Systems of Africa Martena Tenney Sasnett, Inez Hopkins Sepmeyer, 1967 Monograph outlining the educational system of each African country includes information on primary education secondary education higher education vocational training teacher training technical education etc In respect of examinations certificates and degrees curriculum hours per week for each subject matriculation requirements etc Bibliography pp 1510 to 1550 maps references and statistical tables      The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1919      Treading the waters of history Kondlo, Kwandiwe, Saunders, Chris, 2014-12-10 This volume is an anthology of thought pieces about the ANC contributed by a variety of scholars and thinkers It gives voice to a variety of perspectives on the subject The fact that some authors disagree with each other is all part of what will we hope be an on going debate The book originated from a series of public dialogues that began before the centenary year and continued afterwards being held at the University of Free State The first section covers reflections on how knowledge of the history of the ANC has advanced and the position of that history in the general history of the liberation struggle This section aids a critical appraisal of the state of primary sources used in writing the history of the ANC Chapters in the second half of the book consider some of the various contexts in which the ANC has operated and continues to operate These include the evolution of the ANC's economic policy and how it has changed over time the kind of leadership the organisation provided in redefining gender relations and most importantly the ANC and international relations especially seen from the vantage point of progressive internationalism The last section examines the evolution of Pan Africanism in the ANC's ideological development

Hani Janet Smith, Beauregard Tromp, 2023-02-28 This is an excellent portrayal of the Chris I knew Not one word of exaggeration so large was Chris His contribution to our freedom is inestimable Mavuso Msimang ANC veteran and former member of the military high command of uMkhonto we Sizwe Chris Hani's assassination in 1993 gave rise to two of South Africa's greatest political questions If he had survived what impact would he have had on the ANC government And could this charismatic man have risen to become president of the country In the 30th anniversary year of his murder by right wing fanatics this updated version of the seminal biography of Hani re-evaluates his legacy and traces his life from his childhood in rural Transkei to the crisis in the ANC camps in the 1980s and the perilous last 36 months he spent back home rallying for South Africa's freedom Drawing on interviews with those who knew him this vividly written book provides a detailed account of the life of a hero of South Africa's liberation who was both an intellectual and a fighter

WITS: The 'Open' Years Bruce Murray, 2022-09-01 In the period between the outbreak of World War II in 1939 and the enactment of university apartheid by the Nationalist Government in 1959 the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg Wits developed as an open university admitting students of all races This the second volume of the history of Wits by historian Bruce Murray has as its central theme the process by which Wits became open the compromises this process entailed and the defence the University mounted to preserve its open status in the face of the challenges posed by the Nationalist Government The University's institutional autonomy is highlighted by Yunus Ballim in his preface to the centenary edition of WITS The Open Years He writes The emerging posture of a university willing to rise in defence of academic freedom was important because this was to become infused into the institutional culture of Wits The book looks at the University's role in South Africa's war effort its contribution to the education of ex-volunteers after the war its leading role in training job seeking professionals required by a rapidly expanding economy and the rise of research and postgraduate study Students feature prominently through their political activities the flourishing of a student intelligentsia the heyday of the Remember and Give Rag parade rugby intervarsity and the stunning success of Wits sportsmen and women WITS The Open Years paints a vivid picture of the range of personalities who enlivened the campus among them some well known figures in the new South Africa The book includes chapters by Alf Stadler who was Professor of Political Studies at Wits and the author of The Political Economy of Modern South Africa and Jonty Winch former Sports Officer at Wits and the author of Wits Sport Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa). Legislative Assembly, 1976-03

The Concept and Application of Transdisciplinarity in Intellectual Discourse and Research MISTRA

MISTRA, 2011-06-09 Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA was publicly launched as a think tank in March 2011 and took up the task of following a transdisciplinary approach to the research generated within the organisation The projects initiated by MISTRA integrate various streams of knowledge and expertise when examining complex issues such as nation formation economic growth social equity adaptable science and technology and other strategic topics related to South Africa's development as a democracy Serving in part as an intellectual movement and in part as a research institution activities are structured around diverse topics that require the opening up of intellectual space for strategic research and reflection specific but not exclusive to the African continent A project was launched The concept and application of transdisciplinarity in intellectual discourse and research The intent of the study was two fold in the first place the need for better theoretical understanding of a transdisciplinarity approach was identified as a necessity and in the second place MISTRA intended to apply transdisciplinarity towards the opening up of an African approach guided in part by the Afrikology principles of the late Professor Dani Nabudere By orientation Transdisciplinarity is an approach that recognises a united and borderless intellectual terrain It is an attempt to formulate an integrative process of knowledge production and distribution in reaction to the twentieth century narrow discipline focus and hyper specialisation It responds to the multi layered challenges of diffused disciplines interlinked socio economic problems the impact of globalisation the de-territorialised nation state technological advancements environmental concerns agriculture and food security and health And it recognises that in history some of the most revolutionary breakthroughs in science and technology in fact happened on the margins of narrow disciplines Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions
