Mismeasuring Schools' Vital Signs Steve Rees, Jill Wynns, 2022-09-29 This book helps school and district leaders avoid the pitfalls that await those making sense of their school's data. Whether you're interpreting achievement gaps, graduation rates, or test results, you're at risk of reaching a mistaken judgment. By learning about common errors and how they're made, you'll be ready to choose safer, surer paths to making better sense of the wealth of data in your school or district. The authors help educators build better evidence, see conclusions more clearly, and explain the data more persuasively. Special features include Questions to Spark Discussion in each chapter, encourage school site, district leaders, and board trustees to apply each chapter's content to their own situations. Data visualizations, together with the authors' interpretations, will help you learn how to do visual analysis and reach the right conclusions. Practical tips provide clear guidance. Supplemental resources can be found at the book's website k12measures.com, including interactive data visualizations and analytic exercises to help you learn a concept by doing.

A Parent's Guide to MAP. NWEA. Northwest Evaluation Association, 2016 This guide was created as a resource to help families better understand Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) and their child's results. The guide provides answers to a variety of questions such as: What is MAP? What does MAP measure? How do schools and teachers use MAP scores? Can MAP tell me if my child is working at grade level and more. The guide also includes a Quick Reference sample report to help parents understand the Student Progress Report. The Student Progress Report will contain the child's NWEA MAP test results and provide information to show how the child is doing compared to other students in the same grade in the child's school district and across the United States.
