brothel keeping to feed clothe protect and house themselves and their families Beyond Brutal Passions is a close study of the women who were accused of marketing sex their economic and social susceptibilities and the strategies they employed to resist authority and assert their own agency Referencing newspapers parish registers census returns coroners reports city directories documents of Catholic and Protestant institutions police books and court records Mary Anne Poutanen reveals how these women confronted limited alternatives and how they fought against established authority in the pursuit of their livelihoods She details these women s lives not only as prostitutes but also as wives mothers sisters and daughters who reconstructed the bonds of kinship and solidarity An insightful history of prostitution Beyond Brutal Passions explores the complicated relationships between women accused of prostitution and the society in which they lived and worked Did We Choose to Industrialize? Robert C.H. Sweeny, 2015-07-01 The choice to industrialize has changed the world more than any other decision in human history And yet the three prevailing explanations the technical new energy sources the Marxist new social relations and the neo liberal people became more industrious are inadequate in making sense of this fundamental change In mid nineteenth century Montreal as in other early industrializing societies change occurred as a result of the choices people made when faced with unprecedented opportunities and constraints Montreal was the first colonial city to industrialize Its overlapping French and English legal traditions mean that people's actions were exceptionally well documented for a North American city Robert Sweeny's novel reading of sources like city directories ordinance surveys monetary protests and apprenticeship contracts leads him to develop important critiques of both mainstream and progressive historiography He shows how the choice to industrialize was tied to the development of completely new ways of thinking about the world on three inter related levels how should we relate to each other to property and to nature In Montreal as in all the other early industrializing societies thought preceded action Sweeny illuminates the personal and familial decisions that tens of thousands of people made by the mid nineteenth century which already prefigured much of what industrialized Montreal would look like in 1880 At a moment when global conflict is tied to resources and climate change Sweeny shows how fundamental decision making can determine widespread social change Informed by four decades of scholarship Why Did We Choose to Industrialize Is a politically engaged argument about history a sustained reflection on sources and method in historical practice and a singular vantage point on the ideas that have shaped historical understandings of industrialization Essays in the History of Canadian Law G. Blaine Baker, Donald Fyson, 1981-01-01 The essays in this volume deal with the legal history of the Province of Quebec Upper and Lower Canada and the Province of Canada between the British conquest of 1759 and confederation of the British North America colonies in 1867 The backbone of the modern Canadian provinces of Ontario and Quebec this geographic area was unified politically for more than half of the period under consideration As such four of the papers are set in the geographic cradle of modern Quebec four treat nineteenth century Ontario and the remaining four deal with the St Lawrence and Great Lakes watershed rebellions to the burning of Parliament in 1849 Employing a close reading of newspaper and judicial archives he looks at a broad range of collective crowd experiences including riots labour demonstrations religious processions and parades By examining how crowd events were used both to assert claims of political authority and to challenge their legitimacy Horner charts the development of a contentious democratic political culture in British North America Taking to the Streets is an important contribution to the political and urban history of pre Confederation Canada and a timely reminder of how Montrealers from all walks of life have always used the streets to build community and make their voices heard Au risque de la conversion Catherine Foisy, 2018-02-02 In this ambitious and pioneering work Catherine Foisy puts the experiences of Quebec missionaries into perspective describing the ways in which they interweave with the socio ecclesiastical transformations peculiar to Quebec and with those of Catholicism in mission countries. This tapestry extending to the four corners of the world gives the reader a view of missionary work as a site of intercultural encounter and conversion as revealed through the voices of its actors These accounts offer an opportunity to gauge the extent to which twentieth century missionary work provided fertile ground for the emergence deployment and transfer of socio ecclesiastical innovations that would prove decisive for the future of global Christianity On the strength of its multidisciplinary approach and transnational analysis this book documents various aspects of the Quebec missionary experience as it successively prospered reached a zenith and went into decline By revisiting Lionel Groulx s 1962 work on the Quebec missionary experience from the standpoint of those who actually took part in it this book gives readers a new vantage on a whole area of Quebec history even as it sheds light on a rich religious heritage both tangible and intangible Finally this book is an opportunity for readers to reacquaint themselves with certain characteristics of societies within larger societies that enable them to foster the emergence of intercultural encounters and dialogue in a globalized context Wounded Feelings Eric H. Reiter, 2019-11-04 Wounded Feelings is the first legal history of emotions in Canada Through detailed histories of how people litigated emotional injuries like dishonour humiliation grief and betrayal before the Quebec civil courts from 1870 to 1950 Eric H Reiter explores the confrontation between people's lived experience of emotion and the legal categories and terminology of lawyers judges and courts Drawing on archival case files newspapers and contemporary legal writings he examines how individuals narrated their claims of injured feelings and how the courts assessed those claims using legal rules social norms and the judges own feelings to validate certain emotional injuries and reject others. The cases reveal both contemporary views of emotion as well as the family gender class linguistic and racial dynamics that shaped those understandings and their adjudication Examples include a family s grief over their infant son s death due to a physician s prescription error a wealthy woman's mortification at being harassed by a conductor aboard a train and a Black man's indignation at being denied seats at a Montreal cinema The book also traces an important legal change in how moral injury was conceptualized in Quebec civil law over the period as it came to be linked to the developing idea of personality rights By 1950 the subjective richness of stories of wounded feelings was increasingly put into the language of violated rights a development with implications for both social understandings of emotion and how individuals presented their emotional injuries in court Le Concept de liberté au Canada à l'époque des Révolutions atlantiques (1776-1838) Michel Ducharme, 2009-12-01 Cet ouvrage revisite l'histoire intellectuelle et politique canadienne entre la r volution am ricaine et les r bellions de 1837 1838 au Haut et au Bas Canada en la r int grant dans le cadre des R volutions atlantiques qui ont secou l Europe et l Am rique entre 1776 et 1838 Reposant sur un cadre th orique inspir des travaux des historiens intellectuels du monde atlantique il traite plus particuli rement de l importance du concept de libert dans le d veloppement de l tat dans les deux colonies Il d montre que ces derni res se sont d velopp s d s 1791 en suivant un id al de libert qui tout en tant diff rent de la libert l oeuvre au sein des mouvements r volutionnaires de la fin du XVIIIe si cle n en tait pas moins issu des Lumi res Il pr sente galement les r bellions de 1837 1838 comme tant en partie le r sultat d un affrontement entre deux concepts tr s diff rents de libert Madness on trial James Moran, 2019-05-13 This book examines the role of civil law in determining mental capacity over a five hundred year period in Grossières indécences Domenic Dagenais, 2020-07-23 Apr s avoir cofond la premi re revue England and in New Jersey homosexuelle canadienne la po te Elsa Gidlow 21 ans d cide de guitter Montr al en 1920 d ue par le mangue de possibilit s amoureuses que lui offre alors la ville Le r seau d amis masculins homosexuels qu elle a int gr au cours des ann es pr c dentes ne manque toutefois pas d'occasions de trouver des partenaires En effet m me si l'homosexualit est consid r e comme un crime depuis l poque coloniale une culture gaie masculine qui tait pratiquement inexistante avant 1880 s est largement panouie depuis le d but du si cle Grossi res ind cences retrace les origines de cette culture clandestine complexe et fascinante Dominic Dagenais a consult rebours des archives produites en grande partie par la surveillance et la pers cution soit des dossiers judiciaires des articles de journaux de la correspondance des archives personnelles des publications m dicales et des dossiers d enqu tes publiques pour mettre au jour le contexte r pressif dans lequel les identit s homosexuelles contemporaines se sont construites et pour d couvrir les espaces publics investis par le monde homosexuel montr alais au tournant du XXe si cle Dans une ville marqu e par le fleurissement des loisirs commerciaux et les tr pidations de son quartier chaud des hommes mais aussi quelques femmes ont d ploy diverses strat gies pour se rencontrer et pour nouer des relations Des rencontres risqu es surviennent ainsi dans les rues ruelles magasins parcs th tres et toilettes publiques de la ville Un monde homosexuel riche et diversifi prend forme Montr al au tournant du XXe si cle en d pit d une surveillance polici re de plus en plus labor e et des lourdes sanctions p nales auxquelles s exposent les individus se livrant des rapports homosexuels consid r s alors comme une grossi re ind cence et comme le pire des vices Ce livre documente son histoire in dite

Quebec Hydropolitics David Massell,2011-01-27 The construction in the 1940s of hydroelectric dams and reservoirs Lakes Manouan and Passe Dangereuse were enormous projects that had consequences not only on the environment but also on international affairs Built by the Aluminium Company of Canada Rio Tinto Alcan the project helped meet the American and

Allied Forces demand for electrical power and aluminium ingot during the Second World War but also forced Innu Montagnais hunter trappers from their ancestral lands Examining sources as varied as the papers of the Franklin D Roosevelt Presidential Library and interviews with Montagnais elders Quebec Hydropolitics presents a compelling synthesis of business and social history as well as wartime politics David Massell reconstructs the story of a changing landscape through the perspectives of corporate executives government officials and Aboriginals to show the effect that war had on Canadian resource extraction and energy policy as well as its indigenous peoples A narrative that flows from the Saguenay watershed to the centres of political power Quebec Hydropolitics is an informative look at the costs and benefits of large scale Mental Health and Canadian Society James E. Moran, David Wright, 2006-08-14 In Mental Health and Canadian Society leading researchers challenge generalisations about the mentally ill and the history of mental health in Canada Considering the period from colonialism to the present they examine such issues as the rise of the insanity plea the Victorian asylum as a tourist attraction the treatment of First Nations people in western mental hospitals and post World War II psychiatric research into LSD Itineraries and Languages of Madness in the Early Modern World Mariana Labarca, 2021-07-05 Drawing on a wide range of sources including interdiction procedures records of criminal justice documentation from mental hospitals and medical literature this book provides a comprehensive study of the spaces in which madness was recorded in Tuscany during the eighteenth century It proposes the notion of itineraries of madness which intended as an heuristic device enables us to examine records of madness across the different spaces where it was disclosed casting light on the connections between how madness was understood and experienced the language employed to describe it and public and private responses devised to cope with it Placing the emotional experience of the Tuscan families at the core of its analysis this book stresses the central role of families in the shaping of new understandings of madness and how lay notions interacted with legal and medical knowledge It argues that perceptions of madness in the eighteenth century were closely connected to new cultural concerns regarding family relationships and family roles which resulted in a shift in the meanings of and attitudes to mental disturbances Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec Brian Young, 2014-10-01 History has often ignored the influence in modern Quebec of family dynasties patriarchy seigneurial land and traditional institutions Following the ascent of four generations from two families through eighteenth century New France to the onset of the First World War Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec compares the French Catholic Taschereaus and the Anglican and English speaking McCords Consulting private institutional and legal archives Brian Young studies eight family patriarchs Working as merchants or colonial administrators in the first generation they became seigneurial proprietors officeholders and prelates The heads of both families used marriage arrangements land stewardship and judgeships to position their heirs Young shows how patriarchy was a central force in both domestic and public life as well as the ways in which Taschereau and McCord family strategies extended into the marrow of Quebec society through moral authority influence on national identities and their positions within senior offices in religious judicial and university institutions. Through courthouses cemeteries belfries and their own chapels and neoclassical estates they created encompassing cultural landscapes. Later generations used museums archives historian collaborators photography and modern print to elevate family achievement to the status of heroic national narratives. Sagas of the monied and entrepreneurial nationalist imperatives to protect a vulnerable people and skepticism about the lasting power of great families and historical institutions have relegated the influence of the Taschereaus and McCords to obscurity Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec resuscitates the central role these elite families played in English and French Quebec
