This study guide IS NOT comprehensive; there will be some material on the test that IS NOT on this study guide. Make sure to study your quizzes and past worksheets. This study guide is worth 20 points!

Fill in the character that fits with each description. Also write whether the character is alive or dead by the end of the novel:

- A. The hideous creation of our protagonist. He is intelligent and sensitive, but his feelings of abandonment compel him to seek revenge against his creator.
- B. The Arctic seafarer to whom Victor is relating his story. He relates Victor's tale to his sister, Margaret Saville, in England.
- C. Victor's childhood friend. His cheerfulness counters Victor's moroseness.
- D. She is raised as Victor's cousin, they later marry. She embodies the novel's motif of passive women, as she waits patiently for Victor's attention.
- E. Her death is the original reason Victor decides to study how to reanimate matter and eventually to stop death altogether.
- F. The Monster learns to speak and read partly because of this woman's education in the same subjects.
- G. His death is the first of many in the novel; he is the adorable and much beloved youngest son of the Frankenstein family.
- H. A young girl adopted into the Frankenstein household. She is executed for a crime that she did not commit.
- I. The protagonist of the novel, he changes from a naive young man fascinated by science into a revenge-driven man who is determined to destroy his creation.

Short answer questions:

- 1. Who is writing Victor Frankenstein's story and why?
- 2. Victor states, "If our impulses were confined to hunger, thirst, and desire, we might be nearly free" (pg. 111). What point is Victor trying to make?
- 3. The symbol of FIRE is introduced in ch. III (pg 119)—what are the two opposite effects that fire can produce and what might fire symbolize?
- 4. The monster learns an important lesson in Chapter V about human nature as he learns about history. What is this lesson (pg. 139)?
- 5. As the monster becomes self-aware, his sorrow increases with knowledge (pg. 140). How does this compare/contrast to Victor's desire from question #2?
- 6. What two characters from Paradise Lost does the monster compare himself to in Chapter VII? Why might he compare himself to these two?
- 7. Volume III has plenty of examples of foreshadowing—list one example from the text below and include a quote:
- 8. When Victor believes that he is about to die while floating aimlessly in the ocean, he states: "How mutable are our feelings, and how strange is that clinging love we have of life even in the excess of misery!" (pg. 212) What deeper meaning might this quote hold, for both Victor and the monster?

Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century Ellen Lewin, Leni M. Silverstein, 2016-07-07 Feminist anthropology emerged in the 1970s as a much needed corrective to the discipline's androcentric biases. Far from being a marginalized subfield, it has been at the forefront of developments that have revolutionized not only anthropology but also a host of other disciplines. This landmark collection of essays provides a contemporary overview of feminist anthropology's historical and theoretical origins, the transformations it has undergone, and the vital contributions it continues to make to cutting-edge scholarship. Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century brings together a variety of contributors giving a voice to both younger researchers and pioneering scholars who offer insider perspectives on the field's foundational moments. Some chapters reveal how the rise of feminist anthropology shaped and was shaped by the emergence of fields like women's studies, black and Latina studies, and LGBTQ studies. Others consider how feminist anthropologists are helping to frame the direction of developing disciplines like masculinity studies, affect theory, and science and technology studies. Spanning the globe from India to Canada, from Vietnam to Peru, Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century reveals the important role that feminist anthropologists have played in worldwide campaigns against human rights abuses, domestic violence, and environmental degradation. It also celebrates the work they have done closer to home, helping to explode the developed world's preconceptions about sex, gender, and sexuality. The Haunted Castle Eino Railo, 1927

The Language of the Eyes Daryl Ogden, 2006-06-01 While Darwinian and Freudian theories of vision and sexuality have represented women as lacking visual agency, Daryl Ogden's The Language of the Eyes argues that the gaze is not merely a masculine phenomenon and that women have powerfully desiring eyes as well. Ogden offers a comprehensive cultural history of female visuality in England by analyzing scientific writings, conduct books, illustrated periodicals, poetry, painting, and novels, and he makes important and hitherto unrecognized connections between literary history, cultural studies, and science studies. In so doing, Ogden accomplishes what numerous feminist critics, especially film theorists, have not: the recovery of the modern female spectator from historical obscurity. Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism, humanity, and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman. This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged, transformed, and might further develop across the humanities. With its focus on the posthuman as a figure, on posthumanism as a social discourse, and on posthumanisation as an ongoing historical and ontological process, the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences. The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities, health humanities, animal studies, and disability studies. The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time. Additionally, the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography, games, art, film, museums, and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism s impact across disciplines and areas of study SIPRE Report ,
