Women and Food Security in Kenya Nadine R. Horenstein, 1989      Kenya Adaptation to Climate Change in the Arid Lands: Anticipating, Adapting to and Coping with Climate Risks in Kenya - Operational Recommendations for KACCAL ,      Back from the Brink: The 2008 Mediation Process and Reforms in Kenya The Office of the AU Panel of Eminent African Personalities, 2014-01-01 In December 2007 following a bitterly disputed presidential election violence rippled out across Kenya exposing entrenched ethnic divisions fuelled by social and economic exclusion corruption and winner takes all politics This book describes the remarkable intervention of the Panel of Eminent African Personalities Convened by the African Union while violence was still spreading Kofi Annan Gra a Machel and Benjamin Mkapa were asked to mediate between the parties create the conditions for peace and negotiate a political settlement that would tackle the root causes of conflict mend Kenya s failing institutions and reduce its profound inequalities With the advantage of an insiders account Back from the Brink describes how the Panel deployed their diplomatic and peace making skills to stop the bloodshed and how from 2008 to 2013 Annan Machel and Mkapa remained deeply engaged in Kenya s efforts to build a durable peace      Escalation And Intervention Arthur R. Day, 2019-08-27 Since World War II the international community has tried to insulate limit and resolve local conflicts The generally poor success record has led some to conclude that multilateral organizations have failed in dealing with international conflicts while others have argued that governments have not used these organizations effectively Not enough thought however has been given to the contributions that can be made to conflict management and resolution through the use of diplomatic political military and economic intervention by multilateral organizations by unilateral action of national states and by efforts of states acting in informal concert This book evaluates the means that have been used to influence the course of six recent disputes considering the costs and benefits in each case In a broader context it examines the relationship of local conflict to international security and considers the dilemma of providing security to small states without compromising their independence Finally it assesses the extent to which local wars tend to escalate and threaten the global security system      At the End of Military Intervention Robert Johnson, Timothy Clack, 2015 Written by leading scholars and practitioners this is the first book to explore the specifics of what happens at the end of military intervention It draws upon on a wide range of post 1945 examples from a variety of regions and periods providing a foundational source on what forms a crucial element of past and present interventions      Case Studies in School Psychology Stephanie A. Rahill, Lauren T. Kaiser, 2021-09-06 Case Studies in School Psychology is the first textbook to comprehensively introduce the NASP Practice Model through active discussion of real life school based examples of issues facing school psychologists Incorporating all 10 domains of practice these true to life scenarios span individual child class wide school wide and district community wide organizational levels across multiple age and developmental ranges Graduate students will better understand their expansive roles and potential avenues to make positive impacts as school psychologists

in children's academic, social, emotional and behavioral development

Intervention In Child Nutrition

Jan Hoorweg, Rudie Niemeijer, 2013-10-28 First published in 1989 The studies that form the basis for this monograph were carried out between 1976 and 1979 The African Studies Centre in Leiden has a standing interest in child nutrition and provided the funds and resources for what was ambitiously termed the Nutrition Intervention Research Project [Food systems transformation in Kenya: Lessons from the past and policy options for the future Loading... Resilience Analysis in Isiolo, Marsabit and Meru, Kenya 2016 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-10-25 This report is part of a series of country level analyses prepared by the FAO Resilience Team Eastern Africa RTEA and the Resilience Analysis and Policies RAP team The series aims at providing programming and policy guidance to policy makers practitioners UN agencies NGO and other stakeholders by identifying the key factors that contribute to the resilience of households in food insecure countries and regions The analysis is largely based on the use of the FAO Resilience Index Measurement and Analysis II RIMA II tool Latent variable models and regression analysis have been adopted Findings are integrated with geo spatial variables      Destabilising Interventions in Somalia Debora Valentina Malito,2019-11-05 This book is a critical reading of contemporary interventionism exploring how interventions shape the course of conflicts and reconciliation processes in Somalia In a critical departure from the state capacity consensus that has dominated the debate on terrorism and state failure this book argues that conflict and sovereignty transformations in Somalia cannot be understood as the result of a gap in state capacity as multiple interventions have compromised the autonomy of the target state and society to act as sovereign Destabilising Interventions in Somalia focuses on the humanitarian intervention of the mid 1990s the Ethiopia Eritrean regional proxy war in the late 1990s and the Global War on Terror in the 2000s Examining the politics and mechanisms of multiple interventions this book shows how interveners complicate and amplify existing conflicts how they reiterate the international dimension of the conflict itself and how they orient the target state towards the outsourcing of sovereignty functions Key to this process has been the violent and exclusionary nature of interventions grounded in the aspiration of transforming existing political orders Destabilising Interventions in Somalia will be of interest to students of African peace and conflict studies international intervention and International Relations      Public Transportation in Kenya (A Phenomenological Study of Transport Issues) Joseph Kamau Muguro,Paul Waweru Njeri,Minoru Sasaki,2024-08-16 Public Transportation in Kenya provides an in depth examination of the significant challenges faced by Kenya s public transportation system using a phenomenological approach to highlight the real world experiences of commuters and stakeholders The book addresses two primary goals to explain the severe impact of transportation issues on millions of Kenyans including loss of livelihoods disabilities and fatalities and to propose solutions aimed at reducing road traffic accidents and improving overall transportation safety The chapters begin with a review of Kenya s transport studies and current state followed by an analysis of road traffic accident data and contributing factors Subsequent sections explore the inadequacies in infrastructure traffic law and enforcement and the challenges posed by incomplete data collection The book also details an innovative study using data mining and natural language processing NLP on over one million traffic related tweets to uncover commuter trends and driver behaviors The final set of chapters presents comprehensive recommendations for improving road safety enhancing infrastructure and reforming policing practices to better manage traffic and transportation issues Key features of this book include the use of both structured and unstructured data for a robust analysis practical solutions for policymakers and an innovative methodological approach utilizing NLP and data mining to analyze the issues presented. References and summaries are also provided in each chapter to make information accessible. These elements make the book a valuable resource for researchers, academics, policymakers, transportation professionals, and anyone interested in the socio-economic impacts of public transportation in Kenya and other African countries. Public Transportation in Kenya is essential reading for those looking to understand and address the critical transportation challenges that affect millions daily, providing insights and solutions that can lead to safer and more efficient transport systems. Agricultural Intensification, Environmental Conservation, Conflict and Co-Existence at Lake Naivasha, Kenya, 2024-06-24. This interdisciplinary volume provides a comprehensive and rich analysis of the century-long socio-ecological transformation of Lake Naivasha, Kenya. Major globalised processes of agricultural intensification, biodiversity conservation efforts, and natural resource extraction have simultaneously manifested themselves in this one location. These processes have roots in the colonial period and have intensified in the past decades after the establishment of the cut flower industry and the geothermal energy industry. The chapters in this volume exemplify the multiple intertwined socio-environmental crises that consequently have played out in Naivasha in the past and the present and that continue to shape its future. Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard), 2009-07-22. The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya, and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya. Narrative, Identity and Ethics in Postcolonial Kenya, Eleanor Tiplady Higgs, 2021-06-03. Can a Christian organization with colonial roots work towards reproductive justice for Kenyan women and resist sexist interpretations of Christianity? How does a women's organization in Africa navigate controversial ethical dilemmas while dealing with the pressures of imperialism in international development? Based on a case study of the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) in Kenya, this book explores the answers to these questions. It also introduces a theoretical framework drawn from postcolonial feminist critique, narrative identity theory, and the work of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians' everyday Christian ethics. The book evaluates the theory's implications as a cross-disciplinary theme in feminist studies of religion and theology. Eleanor Tiplady Higgs argues that Kenya YWCA's narratives of its Christian history and constitution sustain a link between its ethical perspective and its identity. The ethical insights that emerge from these practices proclaim the relevance of the value of fulfilled lives as prescribed in the New Testament for Christian women's experiences of reproductive injustice. Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard), 2009-12-01. The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya, and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya. The NGO Factor in Africa, Maurice N. Amutabi, 2013-09-13. The book breaks new ground in understanding the role of Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in Africa. The book historicizes NGOs using the Rockefeller Foundation as a case study, looking at its tripartite paradoxical roles as an agent of colonialism, globalization, and development.

underdevelopment It deploys interdisciplinary devices to show how the RF projects have engaged in marginalization patronage and othering of African values and customs and the ensuing controversies Using globalization postmodern and postcolonial theories the book deconstructs the long held myths about NGO inviolability and opens ground for understanding their strengths It interrogates sites of contestation apprehension and possibilities that the RF has produced Using RF projects it looks at structures of hegemony race power class and gender that the RF has created The book illustrates the extent to which the RF has been instrumental in spreading capitalism imperialism in economic political cultural and social realms through globalization It desists from the grand narrative approach that has dominated African history in the past but instead gives agency and voice to those that have previously been marginalized

The gendered impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic in Kenya, Niger, Rwanda, and Uganda: Evidence from phone surveys Bryan, Elizabeth, Mawia, Harriet, Ringler, Claudia, Mane, Erdgin, Costa, Valentina, Ndoro, Rumbidzai, 2023-09-22 The COVID 19 pandemic has had far reaching impacts in every part of the world including on vulnerable populations in rural areas of low and middle income countries This report explores the ways in which men and women in rural areas of four countries in sub Saharan Africa SSA Kenya Niger Rwanda and Uganda experienced the COVID 19 pandemic and associated income losses as well as their responses to the crisis To identify and monitor the differential effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on women and men in rural households IFPRI conducted phone surveys in selected regions of the four focal countries with financial and technical support from the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO The surveys traced gender differences in responses to the pandemic and associated restrictions such as choice of coping strategies access to public assistance and changes in the care burden for men and women
