Discourses of the Elders: The Aztec Huehuetlatolli A First English Translation ,2023-08-29 A dazzlingly fresh take on universal themes Bursting with practical wisdom Skye C Cleary author of How to Be Authentic A philosophy grounded not in a transcendent divinity afterlife or individualism but in a rooted communal life Western philosophers have long claimed that God if such a being exists is a personal force capable of reason and that the path to a good human life is also the path to a happy one But what if these claims prove false or at least deeply misleading The Aztecs of central Mexico had a rich philosophical tradition recorded in Latin script by Spanish clergymen and passed down for centuries in the native Nahuatl language one of the earliest transcripts being the Huehuetlatolli or

Discourses of the Elders compiled by Friar Andr s de Olmos circa 1535 Novel in its form the Discourses consists of short conversations between elders and young people on how to achieve a meaningful and morally sound life The Aztecs had a metaphysical tradition but no concept of being They considered the mind an embodied force present not just in the brain but throughout the body Their core values relied on collective responsibility and group wisdom not individual thought and action orienting life around one's actions in this realm rather than an afterlife distinctly opposed to the Christian beliefs that permeate Europe and America Sebastian Purcell's fluency in his grandmother's native Nahuatl brings to light the Aztec ethical landscape in brilliant clarity Never before translated into English in its entirety and one of the earliest post contact texts ever recorded Discourses of the Elders reflects the wisdom communicated by oral tradition and proves that philosophy can be active communal and grounded not in a pursuit of happiness but rather the pursuit of a meaningful life Muhenda (English version) Wilson Miguel, After the success and also the breaking of the law of the black lives matter movement all blacks around the world were expelled forced to return to Africa creating a political division between blacks and whites But the explosion of global warming and the rupture of the ozone layer grants world dominion and power over the only kingdom on the planet that holds natural resources the kingdom of Muhenda in Africa A place where white people were never welcome However an agent of the intelligence of the whites manages to enter Muhenda The king of Muhenda is murdered and the white man is sentenced to death for the crime and as retaliation all the remaining whites were made slaves Years later a dictator and tyrant empire rises dominating all of Africa inflicting terror oppression inequality and pain Led by the new king of Muhenda and the brother of the deceased the emperor Luther Nankela That situation forces Sowety a young African warrior queen and Selena a young white slave to stand up step up and fight against the new system Two different women two enemy races one almost impossible gold freedom
