eSourcing Capability Model for Service Providers eSCM-SP Bill Hefley, Elaine B. Hyder, Keith Heston, Mark Paulk, 2015-01-01 The eSourcing Capability Model for Service Providers eSCM SP is the best practices model that supports sourcing organizations successfully manage and reduce their risks and improve their capabilities across the entire sourcing life cycle. It addresses the critical issues related to IT enabled sourcing eSourcing for both outsourced and in sourced shared services agreements. Each of the Model's 84 Practices is distributed along three easy to follow dimensions: Sourcing Life cycle, Capability Area, and Capability Level, and have been applied in IT BPO and KPO settings. The eSCM SP has been designed to complement existing quality models so that service providers can capitalize on their previous improvement efforts. ITIL V3 suggests that ITIL be supplemented with eSCM when service management is performed in the context of a sourcing arrangement. A series of documents comparing the eSCM SP with other models and standards has been developed. Developed by The IT Services Qualification Center ITSqc and endorsed by a number of organizations including IAOP International Association of Outsourcing Professionals, this title represents a major step forward for professionals looking to implement Best Practice within the Industry. The Definitive Guide to Supply Management and Procurement Wendy Tate, Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals, 2014 An authoritative guide to planning, implementing, measuring, and optimizing supply management and procurement processes, this book brings together up to the minute principles, strategies, and decisions for all relevant processes, strategies, and tactics. eSourcing Capability Model for Client Organizations - eSCM-CL Bill Hefley, Ethel Loesche, 1970-01-01 Note: This book is available in several languages: French, English. The eSourcing Capability Model for Client Organizations eSCM CL is the best practices model that enables client organizations to appraise and improve their capability to foster the development of more effective relationships and to better manage these relationships. This title helps readers successfully implement a full range of client organization tasks ranging from developing the organization's sourcing strategy, planning for sourcing and service provider selection, initiating an agreement with service providers, managing service delivery, and completing the agreement. The eSCM CL has been designed to complement existing quality models and sourcing frameworks so that clients can capitalize on their previous improvement efforts and meet mandated requirements. ITIL V3 suggests that ITIL be supplemented with eSCM when service management is performed in the context of a sourcing arrangement. Developed by The IT Services Qualification Center ITSqc and endorsed by a number of organizations including IAOP International Association of Outsourcing Professionals, this title represents a major step forward for professionals looking to implement Best Practice within the Industry. Definitive Guides for Supply Chain Management Professionals (Collection) CSCMP, Robert Frankel, Scott B.
