Practicing Applied Anthropology Across Discontinuous Social Fields Keith V. Bletzer, 2023-07-19 This book covers the author's field experiences as an ethnographer in one country of Central America and an applied anthropologist in four US regions. A range of social fields are examined which include constructing a work experience table as a composite job resume, correspondence with a maximum security prisoner for more than ten years, design features for multiple choice testing, farmworker sero-prevalence reports, health seeking behavior among the Ng'b indigenous people in Central America, HIV/AIDS education in rural farm labor camps, Latinx naming practices for grocery stores and restaurants in agricultural areas, organizational capacity building, assistance training and teaching students in a community college and three secondary schools among others. The book highlights the importance of incorporating ethnography in the completion of work tasks across a range of social fields which represent diverse socio-cultural groups and immigrant populations. Introduction to Research and Medical Literature for Health Professionals J. Literary Theory and Criticism: An Introduction Anne H. Stevens, 2015-06-18 Literary Theory and Criticism: An Introduction provides an accessible overview of major figures and movements in literary theory and criticism from antiquity to the twenty-first century. It is designed for students at the undergraduate level or for others needing a broad synthesis of the long history of literary theory. An introductory chapter provides an overview of some of the major issues within literary theory and criticism; further chapters survey theory and criticism in antiquity, the Middle Ages and Renaissance, the Enlightenment and the nineteenth century. For twentieth and twenty-first century theory, the discussion is subdivided into separate chapters on formalist, historicist, political and psychoanalytic approaches. The final chapter applies a variety of theoretical concepts and approaches to two famous works of literature: William Shakespeare's Hamlet and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein.
