Rhetorical Analysis of Cory Doctorow's

"Why I Won't Buy an iPad (and Think You Shouldn't, Either)"

Cory Doctorow's article on BoingBoing is an older review of the iPad, one of Apple's most famous products. At the time of this article, however, the iPad was simply the latest Apple product to hit the market and was not yet so popular. Doctorow's entire career has been entrenched in and around technology. He got his start as a CD-ROM programmer and is now a successful blogger and author. He is currently the co-editor of the BoingBoing blog on which this article was posted. One of his main points in this article comes from Doctorow's passionate advocacy of free digital media sharing. He argues that the iPad is just another way for established technology companies to control our technological freedom and creativity. In "Why I Won't Buy an iPad (and Think You Shouldn't, Either)" published on Boing Boing in April of 2010, Cory Doctorow successfully uses his experience with technology, facts about the company Apple, and appeals to consumer needs to convince potential iPad buyers that Apple and its products, specifically the iPad, limit the digital rights of those who use them by controlling and mainstreaming the content that can be used and created on the device.

The purpose of the article is to convince consumers that the iPad is not a worthwhile thing to buy because it has very limited uses outside of the set content, as well as technological problems and the potential to quickly become obsolete. Cory Doctorow wrote this article stating his negative opinion of the iPad in the wake of enormous media hype over the iPad's release. Apple has proclaimed the iPad as a technological revolution, but Doctorow disagrees. He made

Confessions of an English Teacher: A Memoir of My Teaching Years Richard P. Sinay, 2024-07-24 Confessions of an English Teacher A Memoir of My Teaching Years was written to share some of my extraordinary experiences teaching English at six high schools and seven community colleges in Orange County California from 1973 to 2018 I share these memories because they were so disappointing in their discovery I imagined that as an English teacher I was prepared to teach the subject I was trained for but I learned that was far from the truth My training as an English teacher should have prepared me to teach essential skills It did not As I reflect on my teaching at these schools I discovered that my English degree needed to produce a prepared English teacher for teaching the skills of reading grammar and writing Looking back at what I was mandated to teach revealed a sad truth teaching English to high school and college students was filled with traditions that needed to change With what I discovered to be traditional problems in teaching English I offer recommendations for change for high schools and community colleges
