Understanding Rhetoric Eamon M. Cunningham, 2020-01-01 Understanding Rhetoric A Guide to Critical Reading and Argumentation is a composition textbook that outlines three essential skills rhetoric argument and source based writing geared towards newcomers and advanced students alike Though comprehensive in its coverage the book's focus is a simple one: how to move beyond a gut reaction while reading to an articulation of what is effective and what is not while explicitly answering the most important question of Why. This text gets at this central concern in two fundamental ways. First, the text teaches composition as a cumulative process, coaching you how to question, challenge, and expand on not just the readings you hold in your hands but also how to interrogate the internal processes of writing and thinking. The book's blend of composition methods detail the cross point of product and process to turn reading and writing from a matter of coming up with answers to questions to learning what type of questions need to be asked in the first place. The right questions, the text argues, are fundamentally rhetorical in nature. Second, the content of the practice-based chapters is framed into a larger mesh of intellectual history to show how the writing and thinking you are doing today is continuous with a long history of writing instruction that goes back to the ancient world. This book provides equal representation from classical and contemporary theory with the recognition that theory cannot be fully grasped without practice and practice cannot be fully understood without its theoretical antecedent. After all, you can't write outside the box until you know where the box is and what it looks like.

Scenarios for Writing: Issues, Analysis, and Response Gregory Glau, Craig Jacobsen, 2001. This exciting new rhetoric reader presents six scenarios rooted in contemporary controversies that dramatize rhetorical issues and engage students in conversations informed by competing points of view.

Keys for Writers Fourth Edition, Custom Publication Ann Raimes, Raimes, 2004-06. Between Worlds Susan Bachmann, Melinda Barth, 2000-06. More than just a concise handbook and rhetoric guide, this thematically organized collection of over 70 readings centered around the theme of betweenness discusses concepts such as being caught between generations, living with diverse cultures, dealing with gender conflicts, exploring multiple perceptions of self and others, and accepting or rejecting others' values. This guide to writing, reading, and rhetoric features 36 new readings covering timely topics such as interpreting advertising, the influence of violence in the media, new family patterns, and living online. An introduction to reading actively begins the reading section, and questions and writing suggestions end of each reading. Writers' strategies and strengths so students can apply this information to their own work. This book also provides new detailed annotations and explanatory notes for the argument essay and for the research paper and up-to-date electronic research coverage. For those interested in reading, critical thinking, rhetoric, and writing.

Writing in Response Matthew Parfitt, 2011-12-23. Writing in Response is a flexible brief rhetoric that offers a unique focus on the critical practices of experienced readers: analysis and reflection, the skills at the heart of academic writing. It helps students compose academic essays by showing how active reading and exploratory writing bring fresh ideas to light and how informal response is developed into polished, documented prose. Extensively class-tested, Writing in Response emphasizes the key techniques common to reading, thinking, and writing throughout the humanities and social sciences by teaching students the value of a social, incremental, and recursive writing process.
