Reconfiguring Transregionalisation in the Global South Ross Anthony, Uta Ruppert, 2019-11-01 This volume examines the Africa Asia relationship from a transregional perspective namely as a set of emergent social political and economic practices spanning a number of analytical and spatial scales Drawing on a host of countries from both regions the contributions illustrate how encounters increasingly transcend fixed territorial categories at local national and regional levels While large scale political and economic considerations tend to dominate in Asia Africa related literature for instance in China Africa BRICS and South South discourses the current volume seeks to foster dialogue between these broader levels of analyses and more localized social practices and experiences including the role of civil society cultural production and migration With an emphasis on the trans aspects of inter regional exchange the volume contributes to a better understanding of new forms of space making between these two increasingly important regions

Coherence in Spoken and Written Discourse

Wolfram Bublitz, Uta Lenk, Eija Ventola, 1999 Until very recently coherence unlike cohesion was widely held to be a rather mystical notion However taking account of new trends representing a considerable shift in orientation this volume aims at helping relieve coherence of its mystifying aura The general bibliography which concludes the book bears witness to this intriguing development and the rapidly changing scene in coherence research Preceding this comprehensive up to date Bibliography on Coherence are 13 selected papers from the 1997 International Workshop on Coherence at the University of Augsburg Germany They share a number of theoretical and methodological assumptions and reflect a trend in text and discourse analysis to move away from reducing coherence to a product of formally represented cohesion and or semantically established connectivity Instead they start from a user and context oriented interpretive understanding and rely on authentic data throughout in relating micro linguistic to macro linguistic issues The first group of papers looks at the re creation of coherence in inter alia reported speech casual conversation argumentative writing news reports and conference contributions The second group describes the negotiation of coherence in oral examinations text summaries and other situations that require special efforts on the part of the recipient to overcome misunderstandings and other disturbances The third group discusses theoretical approaches to the description of coherence

Literacy and Globalization Uta

Papen, 2006-09-27 Using literacy practices in the newly independent post apartheid Namibia as a lens through which to examine the effects of globalisation this broad case study looks at issues surrounding tourism state control and the new forces of consumerism By placing literacy at the centre of an investigation into social and cultural change as experienced by individuals Papen shows that in times of change reading and writing are always implicated in structures of power and inequality The book considers language practices that can exclude some members of Namibian society and also looks at the strategies used by local people to accommodate and even embrace the onward march of global English and the influx of foreign visitors practices and modes of commerce and interaction

Constructions of Illiteracy in Twentieth-Century Ireland Maighr  ad Tobin, 2022-12-23

Constructions of Illiteracy in Twentieth Century Ireland Contesting the Narrative of Full Literacy offers new insights into literacy and illiteracy in the context of twentieth century Ireland Through a close analysis of archived documentation from educational military and parliamentary sources the book reveals a potent narrative of full literacy that promoted literacy proficiency as a facet of the Irish national identity and suppressed any formal acknowledgment of illiteracy within the adult population Tobin applies a sociological approach and uses Foucauldian concepts of knowledge power discourse and silence to examine how constructions of illiteracy and the illiterate person varied over time while also being entwined with activities of nation building in the twentieth century Though focused on Irish society from 1900 to 1980 this volume also offers a resonant lens through which to approach the Decade of Centenaries an Irish Government initiative spanning 2012 2023 that commemorates significant events in the history of the Irish state Relevant to any readers with an interest in the Irish experience of independence decolonisation and postcolonialism this book will be a useful companion for scholars and postgraduate students of literacy and Irish studies more broadly

Understanding and Supporting Children with Literacy Difficulties Valerie Muter, 2021-01-21

Dyslexia Philip Kirby, Margaret J. Snowling, 2022-11-15

In 1896 the British physician William Pringle Morgan published an account of Percy a bright and intelligent boy quick at games and in no way inferior to others of his age Yet in spite of his intelligence Percy had great difficulty learning to read Percy was one of the first children to be described as having word blindness better known today as dyslexia In this first comprehensive history of dyslexia Philip Kirby and Margaret Snowling chart a journey that begins with Victorian medicine and continues to dyslexia s current status as the most globally recognized specific learning difficulty In an engaging narrative style Kirby and Snowling

tell the story of dyslexia examining its origins and revealing the many scientists teachers and campaigners who put it on the map Through this history they explain current debates over the diagnosis of dyslexia and its impact on learning For those who have lived experience of dyslexia professionals who have supported them and scholars of social history education psychology and childhood studies Dyslexia reflects on the place of literacy in society whom it has benefited and whom it has left behind

Exploring Universal Basic Income Ugo Gentilini, Margaret Grosh, Jamele Rigolini, Ruslan Yemtsov, 2019-11-25 Universal basic income UBI is emerging as one of the most hotly debated issues in development and social protection policy But what are the features of UBI What is it meant to achieve How do we know and what don't we know about its performance What does it take to implement it in practice Drawing from global evidence literature and survey data this volume provides a framework to elucidate issues and trade offs in UBI with a view to help inform choices around its appropriateness and feasibility in different contexts Specifically the book examines how UBI differs from or complements other social assistance programs in terms of objectives coverage incidence adequacy incentives effects on poverty and inequality financing political economy and implementation It also reviews past and current country experiences surveys the full range of existing policy proposals provides original results from micro tax benefit simulations and sets out a range of considerations around the analytics and practice of UBI

First Year Writing Perspectives On Argument University of Texas at Arlington Staff, 2012

Secularization and Religious Innovation in the North Atlantic World David Hempton, Hugh McLeod, 2017-05-05 In the early twenty first century it had become a cliché that there was a God Gap between a more religious United States and a more secular Europe The apparent religious differences between the United States and western Europe continue to be a focus of intense and sometimes bitter debate between three of the main schools in the sociology of religion According to the influential Secularization Thesis secularization has been an integral part of the processes of modernisation in the Western world since around 1800 For proponents of this thesis the United States appears as an anomaly and they accordingly give considerable attention to explaining why it is different For other sociologists however the apparently high level of religiosity in the USA provides a major argument in their attempts to refute the Thesis

Secularization and Religious Innovation in the Atlantic World provides a systematic comparison between the religious histories of the United States and western European countries from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century noting parallels as well as divergences examining their causes and especially highlighting change over time This is achieved by a series of themes which seem especially relevant to this agenda and in each case the theme is considered by two scholars The volume examines whether American Christians have been more innovative and if so how far this explains the apparent God Gap It goes beyond the simple American European binary to ask what is American or European in the Christianity of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and in what ways national or regional differences outweigh these commonalities

The Social Thought of Talcott Parsons Uta Gerhardt, 2016-02-17 The Social Thought of Talcott Parsons offers an insightful new reading of the work of Talcott Parsons keeping in view at once the important influences of Max Weber on his sociology and the central place occupied by methodology which enables us to better understand the relationship between American and European social theory Revealing American democracy and its nemesis National Socialism in Germany as the basis of his theory of society this book explores the debates in which Parsons was engaged throughout his life with the Frankfurt School C Wright Mills and the young radicals among the disobedient student generation as well as economism and utilitarianism in social theory the opponents that Parsons confronted in the interests of humanism In addition to revisiting Parsons extensive oeuvre Uta Gerhardt takes up themes in current research and theory including social inequality civic culture and globalization offering a fascinating demonstration of what the conceptual approaches of Parsons can accomplish today Revealing methodology and the American ethos to be the cornerstones of Parsons social thought this book will appeal not only to those with interests in classical sociology and who wish to fully understand what this classic has to offer but also to those who wish to make sociology answer to the problems of the society of the present

Information Technology Law Uta Kohl, Andrew Charlesworth, 2016-08-25 The fifth edition of Information Technology Law continues to be dedicated to a detailed analysis of and commentary on the latest developments within this burgeoning field of law It provides an essential read for all those interested in the interface between law and technology and the effect of new technological developments on the law The contents have been restructured and the reordering of the chapters provides a coherent flow to the subject matter Criminal law issues are now dealt with in two separate chapters to enable a more focused approach to content crime The new edition contains both a significant amount of incremental change as well as substantial new material and where possible case studies have been used to illustrate significant issues In particular new additions include Social media and the criminal law The impact of the decision in Google Spain and the right to be forgotten The Schrems case and the demise of the Safe Harbour agreement The judicial reassessment of the proportionality of ICT surveillance powers within the UK and EU post the Madrid bombings The expansion of the ICANN gTLDs and the redesigned domain name registration and dispute resolution processes
