Geography Exemplar Paper1 November 2013

Nadav G. Shelef

Geography Exemplar Paper1 November 2013:

Infinite Suburbia MIT Norman B. Leventhal Center for Advanced Urbanism, 2018-03-13 Infinite Suburbia is the culmination of the MIT Norman B Leventhal Center for Advanced Urbanism's yearlong study of the future of suburban development Extensive research an exhibition and a conference at MIT's Media Lab this groundbreaking collection presents fifty two essays by seventy four authors from twenty different fields including but not limited to design architecture landscape planning history demographics social justice familial trends policy energy mobility health environment economics and applied and future technologies This exhaustive compilation is richly illustrated with a wealth of photography aerial drone shots drawings plans diagrams charts maps and archival materials making it the definitive statement on suburbia at the beginning of the twenty first century

After Katrina Anna Hartnell, 2017-01-25 Argues that post Katrina New Orleans is a key site for exploring competing narratives of American decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Through the lens provided by the tenth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina After Katrina argues that the city of New Orleans emerges as a key site for exploring competing narratives of US decline and renewal at the beginning of the twenty first century Deploying an interdisciplinary approach to explore cultural representations of the post storm city Anna Hartnell suggests that New Orleans has been reimaged as a laboratory for a racialized neoliberalism and as such might be seen as a terminus of the American dream This US disaster zone has unveiled a network of social and environmental crises that demonstrate that prospects of social mobility have dwindled as environmental degradation and coastal erosion emerge as major threats not just to the quality of life but to the possibility of life in coastal communities across America and the world And yet After Katrina also suggests that New Orleans culture offers a way of thinking about the United States in terms that transcend the binary of national renewal or declension The post Hurricane city thus emerges as a flashpoint for reflecting on the contemporary United States

The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2024-11-22 Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence security race and ideology spectacle and data The first volume of this handbook extensively explored these oppressive roles This second volume illustrates that escaping the corporatized and bureaucratized orders of power techno managerial and consumer oriented capitalist economic models is more urgent and necessary than ever before Herein lies the political role of architecture and urban space including the ways through which they can be transformed and alternative political realities constituted The volume explores the methods and spatial practices required to activate the political dimension and the possibility for alternative practices to operate in the existing oppressive systems while not being swallowed by these structures Fostering new political consciousness is explored in terms of the following themes Events and Dissidence Biopolitics Ethics and Desire Climate and Ecology Urban Commons and Social Participation Marginalities and Postcolonialism Volume II embraces engagement across disciplines and offers a wide range of projects and critical analyses across the so called Global North and South This multidisciplinary collection of 36 chapters provides the reader with an extensive resource of case studies and ways of thinking for architecture and urban space to become more emancipatory Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Survival October-November 2020: Pandemics and politics The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2023-04-21 Survival the IISS's bimonthly journal challenges conventional wisdom and brings fresh often controversial perspectives on strategic issues of the moment In this issue Adam Roberts explores pandemics and politics through the ages arguing that trust in leadership is essential in the struggle against infectious diseases Rebecca Barber and Sarah Teitt contend that ASEAN should take a more activist approach to the Rohingya crisis to salvage its credibility Greg Austin assesses the strategic implications of China's weak cyber defences Ystein Tunsj casts doubt on the prospect of the Arctic becoming a theatre of great power conflict And eight more thought provoking pieces as well as our regular book reviews and Noteworthy column

Locating Value Samantha Saville, Gareth Hoskins, 2019-11-21 This book considers the concept of value at the root of our actions and decision making Value is an ever present yet little interrogated aspect of everyday life This book explores value as it is theorised practiced and critiqued from a variety of disciplinary perspectives It examines how value is operationalized endorsed and contested in contemporary society With international insights from leading scholars chapters offer a diverse and vibrant geographical engagement with value to showcase its conceptual flexibility The book explores value's eclectic epistemic foundations its roll out and legitimation across a range of policy fields and its challenges and opportunities The book draws on global examples of value in practice from forest conservation in Indonesia protected area management in arctic Norway a state park in the US certification schemes for biodiversity in the UK protection of the international night sky heritage planning in East Taiwan a re developed airport site in Norway a local food networks in Canada and the UK a market in the US and urban development in China The book will be of interest to human geographers political ecologists heritage scholars and practitioners planners and those working in public policy as well as practitioners and policy makers interested in how valuation processes work

Towards Good Order at Sea Thomas Mandrup, Francois Vre~, 2015-03-01 The problems originating from the resultant bad order at sea can be directly felt on land when smuggling terrorism and related criminal activities operate more or less unhindered The book provides an important mapping of the challenges preventing good order at sea off the African coast and East Africa in particular Rear Admiral N Wang Commandant Royal Danish Defence College

Homelands Nadav G. Shelef, 2020-07-15 Why are some territorial partitions accepted as the appropriate borders of a nation's homeland whereas in other places conflict continues despite or even because of division of territory In Homelands Nadav G. Shelef develops a theory of what homelands are that acknowledges both their importance in domestic and international politics and their change over time These changes he argues driven by domestic political competition and help explain the variation in whether partitions resolve conflict Homelands also provides systematic comparable data about the homeland status of lost territory over time that allow it to bridge the persistent gap between constructivist theories of nationalism and positivist empirical analyses of international relations Risk Communication and Community Resilience Bandana Kar,David M.

Cochran,2019-05-28 Risk communication is crucial to building community resilience and reducing risk from extreme events True community resilience involves accurate and timely dissemination of risk information to stakeholders This book examines the policy and science of risk communication in the digital era Themes include public awareness of risk and public participation in risk communication and resilience building The first half of the book focuses on conceptual frameworks components and the role of citizens in risk communication The second half examines the role of risk communication in resilience building and provides an overview of some of its challenges in the era of social media This book looks at the effectiveness of risk communication in socially and culturally diverse communities in the developed and developing world The interdisciplinary approach bridges academic research and applied policy action Contributions from Latin America and Asia provide insight into global risk communication at a time when digital technologies have rapidly transformed conventional communication approaches This book will be of critical interest to policy makers academicians and researchers and will be a valuable reference source for university courses that focus on emergency management risk communication and resilience

Adopting the Stranger as Kindred in Deuteronomy Mark R. Glanville,2018-11-02 Investigate how Deuteronomy incorporates vulnerable displaced people Deuteronomy addresses social contexts of widespread displacement an issue affecting 65 million people today In this book Mark R Glanville investigates how Deuteronomy fosters the integration of the stranger as kindred into the community of Yahweh According to Deuteronomy displaced people are to be enfolded within the household within the clan and within the nation Glanville argues that Deuteronomy demonstrates the immense creativity that communities may invest in enfolding displaced and vulnerable people Inclusivism is nourished through social law the law of judicial procedure communal feasting and covenant renewal Deuteronomy s call to include the stranger as kindred presents contemporary nation states with an opportunity and a responsibility to reimagine themselves and their disposition toward displaced strangers today Features Exploration of the relationship of ancient Israel s social history to biblical texts An integrative methodology that brings together literary historical legal sociological comparative literary and theological approaches A thorough study of Israelite identity and ethnicity The Social Scientific Study of Jewry Uzi

Rebhun,2014-03-13 Continuing its distinguished tradition of focusing on central political sociological and cultural issues of Jewish life in the last century this latest volume in the annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry series focuses on how Jewry has been studied in the social science disciplines Its symposium consists of essays that discuss sources approaches and debates in the complementary fields of demography sociology economics and geography The social sciences are central for the understanding of contemporary Jewish life and have engendered much controversy over the past few decades To a large extent the multitude of approaches toward Jewish social science research reflects the nature of population studies in general and that of religions and ethnic groups in particular Yet the variation in methodology definitions and measures of demographic socioeconomic and cultural patterns is even more salient in the study of Jews Different data sets have different definitions for what is Jewish or who is a Jew In addition Jews as a group are characterized by high rates of migration including repeated migration which makes it difficult to track any given Jewish population Finally the question of identification is complicated by the fact that in most places especially outside of Israel it is not clear whether being Jewish is primarily a religious or an ethnic matter or both or neither This volume also features an essay on American Jewry and North African Jewry review essays on rebuilding after the Holocaust Nazi war crimes trials and Jewish historiography and reviews of new titles in Jewish studies
