|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Introduction paragraph briefly covers who, what, where and when about the event.   |  | Concluding paragraph links back to the introduction.                        |
|  | First or third person, depending on whether the writer was present.                |  | Explanation of why the events were significant and to whom.                 |
|  | Past tense is used (except if links to present/future are made in the conclusion). |  | Extra details about how and why the event happened in main paragraphs.      |
|  | Named, specific people, places and things are described.                           |  | Personal recount uses stronger language, including description of emotions. |
|  | Time conjunctions, usually in chronological order.                                 |  | Impersonal recount is more factual and direct.                              |
|  | Quotations from witnesses/people who were there.                                   |  |                                                                             |
