Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn, 2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn's first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars

Language and Power Andrea Mayr,2008-08-21 How language is used in institutions and how institutions generate language is a key concern of both sociolinguistics and social theory This readable and comprehensive introduction to language and power in institutions combines theoretical reflection with a strong analytical focus Covering a range of institutional discourses and settings each chapter in Language and Power closely examines institutional discourse practices and provides detailed steps to the critical analysis of institutional discourse both linguistic and multimodal This book is a long overdue contribution to the analysis of the way that institutions have the power to shape our thinking and understanding of the world and to construct identities Key Features This book contains fascinating examples from a variety of institutional contexts including academia prison media and the military It brings together insights from multimodal critical discourse analysis social theory media studies and corpus analysis It is essential reading for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates doing sociolinguistics media studies communication and cultural studies A Hand Book on UNIVERSITY SYSTEM R. Ponnusamy,J. Pandurangan,2014-02-05 The objective of this handbook is to provide all information for academic administrators and all other participants like students parents academicians government agencies industries dealing with university This book is an attempt to give an overall picture of Universities of higher learning describing their mode of functioning infrastructure necessary and usefulness to the society and interests of various stakeholders The cost of higher education during last decade in a few counties is tabulated helping the student in their choice This book also outlines the administrative structure responsibility infrastructure process and functions of the University system It also elucidates checks and balances that are to be in place With newly given insight an academic administrator will be better equipped to arrive at innovative solutions optimize cost improve reliability simultaneously concentrating on the delivery of quality education of very high order University Rankings, Diversity, and the New Landscape of Higher Education ,2019-02-18 University rankings are a relatively new phenomenon in higher education Although quite an established practice in the U S it is only within the last decade that attempts to analyse university performance have spread to the rest of the world and that we also have seen new global rankings appear rankings attempting to measure university performance beyond national borders No wonder that this trend is accompanied by a growing interest in studying rankings throughout the world This book is written as part of the effort to better understand rankings and their effects on higher education A serious approach towards university rankings implies that rankings should be analysed properly including the methods used and the indicators chosen and investigate the objectives claimed If university rankings are considered as consumer information then everyone should have an interest in basing such guidance on valid and reliable data and methodology A serious analysis should also discuss the wider implications of rankings as an emerging phenomenon in higher education Consequently the contributions to this book investigate and analyse how different rankings work how they reach their conclusions and on what data and methodology they are built Furthermore it provides a critical reflection about the impact of rankings on higher education how and in what way rankings influence policy making the structure of the sector or the internal life of the sector
