

Imperial Japan

1 Read the following passage.

Historical records show that the same Imperial family has ruled Japan since 539 CE, but some legends claim that they have been in power since the 600s BCE - almost 1000 years longer. The emperor is the male head of the Imperial family. There have been many emperors during this period.

Legends say that the first emperor was called Jimmu. He was the son of the sun goddess Amaterasu. Many emperors claimed to be the sons of gods or goddesses because this gave them greater power. Peasants were less likely to rebel against a ruler who was related to a god.

Although the Imperial family was once the most powerful family in all of Japan, over time they gradually lost their power. The emperor and his family

2 Mark 539 CE and 600 BCE on the timeline.
