The Competent Public Speaker Sherwyn P. Morreale,2010 Based on the National Communication Association s conceptual model for teaching and evaluating undergraduate public speeches as developed by the author and others Sherwyn P Morreale offers a highly accessible easy to teach easy to learn approach to public speaking The approach adopted in the text includes eight public speaking competencies four on speech preparation and four on speech delivery which are enhanced by emphasizing the impact of technology ethics culture and diversity on public speaking A number of unique features designed to improve teaching and learning include Students used as examples in each chapter so that readers can follow them as they learn about public speaking Tables and boxed text to reinforce the most important learning points Checkpoint and self assessment tools so that readers can determine their level of competence and find out whether they are ready to proceed to the next chapter Competence building activities for students to apply chapter concepts and practice public speaking strategies in the classroom or as take home assignments An accompanying website which is updated on a regular basis and offers a forum for students to contact the author Designed for introductory level public speaking courses taught at two and four year colleges and universities this text offers a distinctively practical alternative for students and teachers to achieve consistency across multiple sections of the public speaking course An instructor s manual is available on request Bookwise Sharon Parsons,2001 Including both fiction and non fiction text types and genres this work is graded and organised into five cross curricular strands These full colour readers are accompanied by teacher s guides and resource sheets featuring appropriately linked ideas and suggestions for Guided Writing activities The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby,Alan Brinkley,James M. McPherson,2003 Readers Front & Center Dorothy J. Barnhouse,2014 Every teacher wants and expects his or her students to be reading increasingly complex texts yet sometimes the gap between our expectations and our students abilities seems wide and deep It s tempting to look at that gap and step in to fill it for them but then we d be doing most of the heavy lifting the understanding analysis and interpretation that our students should be learning for themselves So how can teachers reverse this trend and ensure that our students are fully entering absorbing and experiencing texts How can we make sure they re making complex meaning independently and proficiently as the Common Core State Standards require Readers Front Center answers these questions by framing instruction that starts with the student You ll learn how to do the following Research and listen to your students so your teaching can be more targeted Notice and name your students thinking so they can see what complex thinking looks and sounds like Set your students up to be problem solvers Prepare your students to do increasingly complex thinking in increasingly complex texts Filled with examples of one on one conferences small groups and whole class scenarios this essential book provides an accessible and inspiring model of how and why we need to put students at the front and center of our teaching Home Field Advantage
