Rwanda

Rwanda is a country in Central Africa with a population of 10 million people. Historical records began with a Tutsi king who took power in 1860. During this time, the Tutsi were the aristocracy and the Hutu were their servants. After World War I, the League of Nations (an early version of the United Nations) gave Belgium power to administer Rwanda.

The Belgians used the already existing Tutsi and Hutu differences and made these differences part of their colonial system. The Hutus were used as forced labor for the colonial administration, and the Tutsis supervised them. In 1933, Rwandans were given an ethnic identity card showing if they were Hutu or Tutsi. At that time, 85% were Hutu and 15% were Tutsi. This ID card and Belgium's policy of favoring the Tutsis over the Hutus prepared Rwanda for future violence.

In 1959, three years before independence from Belgium in 1962, the Hutus overthrew the ruling Tutsi king. Over the next several years, thousands of Tutsis were killed. About 150,000 went into exile in neighboring countries. The children of these Tutsi exiles later formed a rebel group, the Rwandan Patriotic Front (RPF), and began a civil war in 1990. This war, along with political and economic problems, made ethnic tensions worse and led to the April 1994 genocide shown in the film Hotel Rwanda.

The Film

Hotel Rwanda is based on real characters and events that happened in Rwanda in 1994. It focuses on the efforts of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager, to hide hundreds of Tutsi refugees and from the Interahamwe militia.
