Fisher Frey's answer to close and critical reading. Learn the best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they yield. But that's just for starters. Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video texts and questions, cross-curricular examples, and an online facilitator's guide, making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K-12. What does the text inspire you to do?

Teaching With Text-Based Questions Kevin Thomas Smith, 2014-03-14
Help your students navigate complex texts in history, social studies, and English language arts. This book shows you how to use a key tool: text-based questions to build students' literacy and critical thinking skills and meet the Common Core State Standards. You'll learn how to ask text-based questions about different types of nonfiction and visual texts, including primary and secondary sources, maps, charts, and paintings. You'll also get ideas for teaching students to examine point of view, write analytical responses, compare texts, cite textual evidence, and pose their own high-level questions. The book is filled with examples that you can use immediately or modify as needed. Each chapter ends with a reflection section to help you adapt the ideas to your own classroom.
