Governing Independence and Expertise Morag McDermont, 2010-04-09 Shortlisted for the SLSA Hart Socio Legal Book Prize 2011 Governing Independence and Expertise tells the story of the not for profit housing sector in England focusing on its representative body the National Housing Federation The story tells of how the Federation and associations influenced their own space of governing through deploying discourses of independence and expertise how being governed and governing become at times one and the same The National Federation of Housing Societies was born in 1935 out of the apparent failure of housing societies associations and charitable trusts to tackle the problem of the slums Its story was a familiar one organisations have often set up collective structures to facilitate intervention in government Viewed historically the success of the project is nevertheless remarkable given that the housing association sector is now a major force in social housing provision Moreover housing associations have pioneered many programmes which are central to our modernised welfare state such as private finance independence and entrepreneurialism Through the story of the Federation the book examines the role of non governmental actors in mechanisms of governing engaging contemporary debates about public services and the nature of the social the limits of the role of the not for profit sector the impact of private funders and the disappearance of the notion of public

Victorian Houses and their Details Helen Long, 2007-06-01 Victorian Houses presents the architectural detailing of the time in the context of the era providing a comprehensive understanding of its architecture and design Pattern books played a vital role in the dissemination of taste between architect builder and client in the nineteenth and early twentieth century By focusing on the contribution of the pattern book to the architecture of the Victorian and Edwardian eras the various trends of the time are documented The types of publications and other sources of taste available at different points over this period reflected social and economic factors such as the changing demand or changes in organisation of manufacturing and retail

Memorable Edinburgh Houses Wilmot Harrison,1893 Practical Guide to Respirator Usage in Industry Gyan Rajhans,Bhawani Pathak,2002-11-18 This new edition outlines the design and implementation of an effective respiratory protective equipment program for industries in which workers are at risk from inhaled particulates toxins and other hazardous materials The book is intended for managers health and safety committees safety specialists and occupational health professionals who need the most up to date and practical advice in a concise and easy to read step by step form rather than an abstract and theoretical reference on the subject As in the first edition the authors present individual components of a respiratory protection program by including chapters on the respiratory tract and how toxic substances affect the lung different respirator types and their limitations the criteria for selection fitting supervision training cleaning administration and medical assessment advice on how to set up an RPE respiratory protection equipment program and case studies to illustrate the need of an effective RPE program in the workplace An impressive number of new research and application related publications have been reviewed since the publication of the first edition The references including relevant web sites and abstracts of these publications have been included to help the reader select appropriate resources for further reading Experts guide you through the complex data presented to industries by OSHA NIOSH ANSI BSI and other health and safety standards setting organizations and equipment manufacturers Saves time and effort in searching official OEM literature Several case studies to illustrate the improper respirator selections and resulting detrimental effects The American Travellers' Guides William Pembroke Fetridge,1865 Wallpapers in Historic Preservation Catherine Lynn,1977 The papered and bordered wall was an important feature of American interiors during the 18th 19th and early 20th centuries Paper hangings both imported and of domestic manufacture were more widely used than many of our restored buildings might lead us to believe This book attempts to catalog and describe the variety as well as accounting for restoration and preservation of pieces as part of the historical record Amazon Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1919 Catalogue of the Astor Library ,1886 Catalogue of the Astor Library (continuation) Charles Alexander Nelson,1886 Catalogue of the Astor Library (continuation). Astor Library,1887
