Cecil, Joan P.

Gipe, Merrill E. Marcy, 2017-07-05 Comprehensive yet succinct and readable Literacy in Grades 4-8 Third Edition offers a wealth of practical ideas to help preservice and practicing teachers create a balanced and comprehensive literacy program while exploring the core topics and issues of literacy in grades 4 through 8. It addresses teaching to standards, differentiating instruction for readers and writers, motivating students using assessment to inform instruction, integrating technology into the classroom, working with English learners and struggling readers, and connecting with caregivers. Selected classroom strategies, procedures, and activities represent the most effective practices according to research, and the many outstanding classroom teachers who were observed and interviewed for the book. The Third Edition includes added material connecting the Common Core State Standards to the instruction and assessment of literacy skills, a combined word study and vocabulary chapter to help readers integrate these important topics in their teaching, more on technology including comprehension of multimodal texts, enhancing writing instruction with technology tools, and teaching activities with an added technology component. Added discussion of teacher techniques during text discussions, strategic moves that help students become more strategic readers, key features in the classroom, vignettes, more than 50 activities, some with a technology component, questions for journal writing and for projects, and field-based activities, troubleshooting sections offering alternative suggestions, and activities for those middle-grade students who may find a particular literacy focus challenging. English Learners at the Top of the Class Mayra C. Daniel, 2017-06-14 English Learners at the Top of the Class is a practice-oriented book that also contributes to the professional literature. It is written for teacher candidates and both new and experienced practicing teachers who want to design and deliver effective instructional paradigms across this country's diverse classrooms. Chapter authors bring to this book their experiences as teachers at levels K-12. Many of them learned English as a second language and experienced life as an EL in U.S. classrooms. They were all teachers who along the way began to work with ELs. Their engagement with culturally diverse students led them to become teacher educators. They are committed to preparing teachers who are energized to learn about their ELs' cultures and who want to make the schoolhouse a culturally responsive environment. The Effective Teaching of Language Arts Donna E. Norton, 1993 Field-tested and backed by sound research, this popular methods book provides readers with a broad background in language arts, including assessment and instruction in the major areas of speaking, listening, writing, and reading. Thoroughly encompassing the back-to-basics movement and the trend toward literature-based instruction, it offers clearly developed methodologies and lessons and makes extensive use of children's actual language samples to illustrate ways literature can enhance the development of language arts skills. Written by an award-winning author, the book focuses on material that embraces the needs of all learners: linguistically different children, multicultural children, and children with learning disabilities and handicaps. Emphasizing the importance of literature-based strategies and the identification of literature that can be applied to each of the language arts, it offers For Your Plan Book, a special section at the end of most chapters which provides concrete ideas, field-tested lessons.

and unit plans teachers can take right into their classroom Literature chapters are now moved to the forefront of the book enabling instructors to place a greater emphasis on literature related language arts Strong methodologies in the composition chapters now encompass the writing process plus results of a five year composition study of the relationships between writing and literature Public school educators parents in home schooling and library personnel
