Lessons For The Fault In Our Stars:

Using Literature to Learn and Teach Language Carol Griffiths, 2024-04-30 This accessibly written textbook uses the intrinsic appeal of a story to engage students with language and provides teachers with the background knowledge and the skills to use literature to construct lessons for their classes which integrate all four skills plus language awareness in an enjoyable way Although a number of books and studies have examined the value of using literature to learn language literature remains under represented as a language learning resource The author argues that the accumulated body of literature represents a bottomless pit of potential material just waiting to be recognised and enjoyed From a teacher s point of view a lesson based on a literary work can provide an integrated approach to language development which few other approaches can match A piece of literature can be used to develop all four skills both receptive and productive reading writing listening speaking as well as production skills and language awareness This book will be an essential resource for pre service and in service teachers teacher trainers students and scholars of Applied Linguistics Language Education TESOL and related subjects

Lessons in Disability Jacob Stratman, 2015-11-16 Disability is a growing reality According to the United States Census Bureau approximately 57 million people 19 percent of the population had a disability in 2010 more than half being reported as severe Interest in disability studies is also growing in literature film art politics and religion Exploring the intersection between disability and young adult literature this collection of new essays fills a gap in scholarship between teachers and YAL scholars The contributors offer textual analysis best practices and numerous examples that enable teachers to expose students to dynamic characters who both reflect and contrast with the reader s reality

Serving Gifted Students in Rural Settings Tamra Stambaugh, Susannah M. Wood, 2021-09-23 A cooperative publication of the National Association for Gifted Children and Prufrock Press Serving Gifted Students in Rural Settings provides a framework for educating the gifted in rural settings The book outlines practical theoretical and evidence supported approaches for understanding teaching and leading programs for this unique population Case study vignettes and practical ideas for administrators and teachers are combined with theoretical applications The first of three sections in the book outlines the various philosophies and current status of rural education The second section focuses on practical strategies and evidence supported approaches for identifying and serving rural gifted students based on their unique geography Section three highlights support structures that are necessary for leading and supporting gifted education in rural schools This book helps bridge the gap existing between rural education and accessible effective gifted education

Called to Teach Christopher J. Richmann, J. Lenore Wright, 2020-08-04 The call to teach means different things to different people This collection contends however that at the very least faithful work in the teaching vocation involves excellence commitment and community Representing diverse disciplines and institutional perspectives from a Christian research university the contributors present reflections based on personal experience empirical data and theoretical models This wide ranging collection offers insight encouragement and a challenge to teachers in all areas of Christian higher education Building upon the legacy of thoughtful teaching at Baylor University while looking toward the future of higher education this collection is framed for Christians who teach in higher education but who are also committed to research and graduate training

How to Be a Film Critic in Five Easy Lessons Christopher K. Brooks, 2019-12-02 How to Be a Film Critic in Five Easy Lessons addresses the serious matter of the increasing gap between the published opinions of professional film critics and the reception of popular film by traditional moviegoers especially millennial movie fans Recent reactions to the low grades emanating from Rotten Tomatoes the iconic film review aggregation site have inspired various constituencies to call for significant changes including some major studio CEOs some actors and the readers of reviews themselves A new generation and breed of film critics is needed not raised to please baby boomers or Generation X movie fans but younger viewers who make up 30% of ticket buyers This study examines all this and offers five categories of film reviewers plying their trade as models of consistency New critics have to start somewhere most often in college film classes and deciding what type of critic one wants to be begins here

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2016-03-10 This popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts and the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to them Throughout the textbook readers are encouraged to raise and explore inquiry based questions in response to authentic dilemmas and issues they face in the critical literature classroom New in this edition the text shows how these approaches to fostering responses to literature also work as rich tools to address the Common Core English Language Arts Standards Each chapter is organized around specific questions that English educators often hear in working with pre-service teachers Suggested pedagogical methods are modelled by inviting readers to interact with the book through critical inquiry methods for responding to texts Readers are engaged in considering authentic dilemmas and issues facing literature teachers through inquiry based responses to authentic case narratives A Companion Website <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms
