Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur's Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair's Ladies Coup and Mistress

The Nineteenth-Century Child and Consumer Culture Dennis Denisoff, 2016-12-05 During the rise of consumer culture in the nineteenth century children and childhood were called on to fulfill a range of important roles In addition to being consumers themselves the young functioned as both goods to be used and consumed by adults and as proof that middle class materialist ventures were assisting in the formation of a more ethical society Children also provided necessary labor and raw material for industry This diverse collection addresses the roles assigned to children in the context of nineteenth century consumer culture at the same time that it remains steadfast in recognizing that the young did not simply exist within adult articulated cultural contexts but were agents in their formation Topics include toys and middle class childhood boyhood and toy theater child performers on the

Flack,2020-02-06 James Joyce and Classical Modernism contends that the classical world animated Joyce s defiant innovative creativity and cannot be separated from what is now recognized as his modernist aesthetic Responding to a long standing critical paradigm that has viewed the classical world as a means of granting a coherent order shape and meaning to Joyce s modernist innovations Leah Flack explores how and why Joyce s fiction deploys the classical as the language of the new This study tracks Joyce s sensitive on going readings of classical literature from his earliest work at the turn of the twentieth century through to the appearance of Ulysses in 1922 the watershed year of high modernist writing In these decades Joyce read ancient and modern literature alongside one another to develop what Flack calls his classical modernist aesthetic which treats the classical tradition as an ally to modernist innovation This aesthetic first comes to full fruition in Ulysses which self consciously deploys the classical tradition to defend stylistic experimentation as a way to resist static paralyzing notions of the past Analysing Joyce s work through his career from his early essays Flack ends by considering the rich afterlives of Joyce s classical modernist project with particular attention to contemporary works by Alison Bechdel and Maya Lang School

Reflections with Lessons Ric Grubaugh, 2025-05-05 This book Reflections with Lessons A Journey through Grief could be described as two books in one One part depicts how a person moves through his life and either grows or regresses in his attempt to find his way forward The author reflects on many events that occur in his life as he moved from a child to a teenager to an adult and now to a senior citizen In his reflections of these events he tries to draw a lesson what did he learn how did it shape his future and was it correct or should he have used the reflection to draw a completely different lesson that would have served him better It is hoped that these reflections and lessons are meaningful and are written concisely and occasionally with a bit of humor sometimes third grade humor The other half of the book does not reflect on a child playing baseball or a teenager trying to date the cheerleader or a young child lying to his mom No these tell of finding and losing the one The one person who made sense of the time between the finding and the losing This book will not find world peace or cure cancer or help you decide between Diet Pepsi or Diet Coke but it is hoped that upon completion the reader chooses to attack the grief and not let grief or the other bears and wolves of life win Bang on
