Jesus in the Victorian Novel Jessica Ann Hughes,2022-01-27 This book tells the story of how nineteenth century writers turned to the realist novel in order to reimagine Jesus during a century where traditional religious faith appeared increasingly untenable Re workings of the canonical Gospels and other projects to demythologize the story of Jesus are frequently treated as projects aiming to secularize and even discredit traditional Christian faith The novels of Charles Kingsley George Eliot Eliza Lynn Linton and Mary Augusta Ward however demonstrate that the work of bringing the Christian tradition of prophet priest and king into conversation with a rapidly changing world can at times be a form of authentic faith even a faith that remains rooted in the Bible and historic Christianity while simultaneously creating a space that allows traditional understandings of Jesus identity to evolve Latino Literature Christina Soto van der Plas,Lacie Rae Buckwalter Cunningham,2023-03-31 Winner 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award Offers a comprehensive overview of the most important authors movements genres and historical turning points in Latino literature More than 60 million Latinos currently live in the United States Yet contributions from writers who trace their heritage to the Caribbean Central and South America and Mexico have and continue to be overlooked by critics and general audiences alike Latino Literature An Encyclopedia for Students gathers the best from these authors and presents them to readers in an informed and

Finally, detailed historical and cultural accounts of Latino diasporas also enrich readers' understandings of the writings that have and continue to be influenced by changes in cultural geography, providing readers with the information they need to appreciate a body of work that will continue to flourish in and alongside Latino communities.

Young Adult Resources Today Don Latham, Melissa Gross, 2014-05-21 Young Adult Resources Today: Connecting Teens with Books, Music, Games, Movies, and More is the first comprehensive young adult library services textbook specifically written for today's multidimensional information landscape. The authors integrate a research-focused information behavior approach with a literature-focused resources approach and bring together in one volume key issues related to research theory and practice in the provision of information services to young adults. Currently, no single book addresses both YA information behaviors and information resources in any detail; instead, books tend to focus on one and give only cursory attention to the other. Key features of this revolutionary book include its success in integrating theory, research, and practice; integrating implications for practice throughout the book; integrating knowledge of resources with professional practice as informed by research; integrating both print and electronic formats throughout within the resource chapters, including websites and social media. Latham and Gross accomplish all this while paying particular attention to the socially constructed nature of young adulthood, diversity, YA development, and multiple literacies. Their coverage of information landscapes covers literature with detailed coverage of both genres and subgenres: movies, magazines, web sites, social media, and gaming. The final chapter covers navigating information landscapes, focusing on real and virtual YA spaces, readers' advisory programming, and collaboration. Special attention is paid to program planning and evaluation.

Tactics of Hope in Latinx Children's and Young Adult Literature Jesus Montaña, Regan Postma-Montaña, 2024-06-01 Using Gloria Anzaldúa's theories of conocimiento as a critical lens, the authors examine several literary works, including Side by Side, Lado a lado, They Call Me Gero, Land of the Cranes, Efrén Divided, and Gabi: A Girl in Pieces.

Gender(ed) Identities Tricia Clasen, Holly Hassel, 2016-08-25 This volume brings together diverse cross-disciplinary scholarly voices to examine gender construction in children's and young adult literature. It complements and updates the scholarship in the field by creating a rich, cohesive examination of core questions around gender and sexuality in classic and contemporary texts. By providing an expansive treatment of gender and sexuality across genres, eras, and national literature, the collection explores how readers encounter unorthodox as well as traditional notions of gender. It begins with essays exploring how children's and YA literature construct communities formed by gender, ethnicity, sexuality, and in face-to-face and virtual spaces. Section II's central focus is how gendered identities are formed, unpacking how texts for young readers ranging from Amish youth periodicals to the blockbuster Divergent series trace reproduce and shape gendered identity socialization In section III the essential literary function of translating trauma into narrative is addressed in classics like Anne of Green Gables and Pollyanna as well as more recent works Section IV's focus on sexuality and romance encompasses fiction and nonfiction works examining how children's and young adult literature can serve as a regressive progressive and transgressive site for construction meaning about sex and romance Last Section IV offers new readings of paratextual features in literature for children from the classic tale of Cinderella to contemporary illustrated novels The key achievement of this volume is providing an updated range of multidisciplinary and methodologically diverse analyses of critically and commercially successful texts contributing to the scholarship on children's and YA literature gender sexuality and women's studies and a range of other disciplines

Welcome to Oxnard Cristina Herrera, 2024-07-15 Michele Serros 1966-2015 is widely known for her groundbreaking book Chicana Falsa and Other Stories of Death Identity and Oxnard Despite her status as a major figure in Chicana literature no scholar has written a book length examination of her body of poetry fiction and nonfiction until now Cristina Herrera also from Oxnard weaves in history autoethnography and literary analysis to explore Chicana adolescence and young womanhood with a focus on place making Factoring in location region and landscape Herrera asks what it means to grow up Chicana in settings that carry centuries of colonial violence segregation and everyday racism against Mexican American communities She contends that Serros used her hometown to broaden understandings of who and what constitutes Chicana communities and identities By reading Serros's work in tandem with her lived experience in the same setting Herrera uncovers moments of adolescent subjectivity that could only be vocalized and constructed within this particular locale Herrera pushes against the tendency to separate the author from the text and argues for a spatial understanding of Chicana adolescence race class and young womanhood
