The Demand for Guide Dog Services Columbia University. School of Social Work. Center for Research and Demonstration, 1958      Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 1987      Publication, 1991      The Disability Rights Movement Doris Fleischer, Fleischer Doris Zames, 2012 The struggle for disability rights in the U S      Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 2003      Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States. Internal Revenue Service, 1989      Animal-Assisted Therapy Donald Altschiller, 2011-01-20 This comprehensive overview of the many types of animal assisted therapy provides the perfect reference for students general readers pet owners animal care specialists psychologists occupational and physical therapists and mental health professionals The use of animals for therapy is a burgeoning form of treatment for individuals with physical emotional or psychological illnesses Written for students and general readers Animal Assisted Therapy offers a historical overview of the practice detailing its growth and the many ways it is practiced today Filled with illustrative examples such as successful programs where children with reading problems read aloud to canine companions the book illuminates the expansive nature and effectiveness of this therapy as it is practiced both generally and among special populations including children the elderly autistic individuals and the incarcerated The book also provides specific information that will be of interest to pet owners who want to get involved in these programs and includes information on U S government requirements allowing guide dogs in public and private facilities      Report United States. Congress. House, 1942      "Seeing-eye" Dogs. Hearing Before a Subcommittee ... on H.R. 6049 ... May 12, 1937 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1937      Sharing Spaces Finn Arne Jørgensen, Dolly Jørgensen, 2024-11-12 Human and animal lives intersect whether through direct physical contact or by inhabiting the same space at a different time Environmental humanities scholars have begun investigating these relationships through the emerging field of multispecies studies building on decades of work in animal history feminist studies and Indigenous epistemologies Contributors to this volume consider the entangled human animal relationships of a complex multispecies world where domesticated animals wild animals and people cross paths creating hybrid naturecultures Technology they argue structures how animals and humans share spaces From clothing to cars to computers technology acts as a mediator and connector of lives across time and space It facilitates ways of looking at measuring moving and killing as well as controlling containing conserving and cooperating with animals Sharing Spaces challenges us to analyze how technology shapes human relationships with the nonhuman world exploring nonhuman animals as kin companions food transgressors entertainment and tools      "Seeing-eye" Dogs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, 1937      A Guide to Guide Dog Schools Ed Eames, 1994 Fewer than 1 5% of the blind and visually impaired use guide dogs as their basic means of mobility One reason for this low percentage is the lack of information about these canine assistants The authors goal is to fill this information gap Intro As the authors originally envisioned this guide it would be a resource for blind people considering partnership with guide dogs They did not anticipate the interest shown by orientation and mobility instructors rehabilitation counselors disabled student officers librarians and teachers of the blind and visually impaired They hope the present edition will find an equally diversified readership To provide greater coverage they are including the Canadian training programs in this edition Pref

Working Dogs: Form and Function, 2nd Edition Cynthia M. Otto,Erik Wilsson,Mia Cobb,2020-03-27 Dogs partner with humans in a wide array of work related disciplines As detectors guides guardians stock herders assistants and professional canine athletes there is demand for more scientific knowledge to enhance the performance and success of human and working dog partnerships This topic encompasses a holistic approach to the science of working dog performance The ability of a dog to complete tasks depends on their physical and behavioral traits their ability to exert themselves at various demanding tasks requires both physical and behavioral stamina agility and resilience The influence and interactions of genetics health environment and training are areas that can provide new insight to improve performance in current dogs and future generations The human impact on the success of the working dog team encompasses the human s physical psychological and analytic perspectives and the intersection of human and canine interspecies communication The
