Charles Rearick, 2023-05-25 A rich and entertaining history of the French capital's predominant myths and image making from the nineteenth century to the present Roxanne Panchasi H France Review How did Paris become the world favorite it is today Charles Rearick argues that we can best understand Paris as several cities in one each with its own history and its own imaginary shaped by dream and memory Paris has long been at once a cosmopolitan City of Light and of modernity a patchwork of time-resistant villages a treasured heirloom a hell for the disinherited and a legendary pleasure dome Focusing on the last century and a half Paris Dreams Paris Memories makes contemporary Paris understandable It tells of renewal projects radically transforming neighborhoods and of counter measures taken to perpetuate the city's historic character and soul It provides a historically grounded look at the troubled suburbs Further it tests long-standing characterizations of Paris's uniqueness through comparisons with such rivals as London and Berlin Paris Dreams Paris Memories shows that in myriad forms buildings monuments festivities and artistic portrayals contemporary Paris gives new life to visions of the city long etched in Parisian imaginations A pleasure to read Catherine Clark H Urban Fascinating Nicoleta Bazgan Contemporary French Civilization Rearick is an expert guide Jeffrey H Jackson Rhodes College Like a pleasant stroll through the city one finds much that one has already seen but also plenty that one has not Stephen Sawyer French History Rearick has written not so much a history of Paris but a history of the history of Paris William Irvine York University is a critical shaping force of socio economic and contemporary urban landscapes This book aims to be the first substantive text on this subject explaining the multiple and complex relationships between tourism and gentrification and their outcomes and manifestations in contemporary metropolises This is achieved by drawing on in depth case analyses addressing the different issues at stake Part I deals with the manifestations of tourism gentrification and the ways it affects urban landscapes through heritagization and urban regeneration strategies Part II looks at the correlations between tourism gentrification and culture Finally the last two parts aim to identify and examine forms and expressions of tourism gentrification distinguishing among the actors beneficiaries and victims of the phenomenon while looking at its implications for intra metropolitan territories and metropolitan governance The book approaches these issues in an innovative way by looking at a variety of metropolises in a diverse range of countries and by dealing with the different relations and management issues generated by gentrification in relation to tourism Through interdisciplinary approaches this groundbreaking text sheds light on the role tourism plays in contemporary metropolises furthering knowledge of urban tourism For these reasons it will be of particular interest to scholars and students of tourism urban studies geography anthropology and sociology

Where Is History Today? Laura Mulvey,Frank Ankersmit,Daniel Pick,Tomáš Jirsa,Martin Elbel,Jiří Lach,2015-02-05 History no longer belongs only to historians but is woven into the fabric and discourse of daily life This fresh and wide ranging survey explores how new media and new historiographic approaches are dramatically expanding what we understand by history today Controversy about the aims and limits of historical analysis has raged ever since the rise of postmodern history in the 1970s But these debates have rarely affected the understanding of history in Central and Eastern Europe The volume confirms the crucial importance of audiovisual and mass media from film to television and radio to comics but does not exclude literary scholars and art historians who are also rethinking their methods taking note of their new consumers If history formerly appeared to be a one way transmission of expertise it is increasingly a dynamic engagement between researchers and audiences Lake Pavin Télesphore Sime-Ngando,Pierre Boivin,Emmanuel Chapron,Didier Jezequel,Michel Meybeck,2016-10-31 This book represents the first multidisciplinary scientific work on a deep volcanic maar lake in comparison with other similar temperate lakes The syntheses of the main characteristics of Lake Pavin are for the first time set in a firmer footing comparative approach encompassing regional national European and international aquatic science contexts It is a unique lake because of its permanently anoxic monimolimnion and furthermore because of its small surface area its substantially low human influence and by the fact that it does not have a river inflow The book reflects the scientific research done on the general limnology history origin volcanology and geological environment as well as on the geochemistry and biogeochemical cycles Other chapters focus on the biology and microbial ecology whereas the sedimentology and paleolimnology are also given attention This volume will be of special interest to researchers and advanced students primarily in the fields of limnology biogeochemistry and aquatic ecology
