| 1 What did the fascists believe was necessary to achieve order in society? (P. 454)                                               | a It was nationalistic, anticommunist, and anti-Semitic. The party also called for Germany to expand its territory and not abide by the Treaty of Versailles.                  |
| 2 How did the fascists believe that the nations became great? (p. 454)                                                            | b the Reichstag, the lower house of the German parliament                                                                                                                      |
| 3 Why did many Italians welcome Mussolini's leadership? (p. 454)                                                                  | c Italians were weary of strikes and riots.                                                                                                                                    |
| 4 How did the Communists establish control in the new Union of Soviet Socialist Republics? (p. 455)                               | d They believed they needed to seize territory from other nations.                                                                                                             |
| 5 What were the characteristics of the Nazi Party? (p. 456)                                                                       | e a dictator who led a strong government                                                                                                                                       |
| 6 Adolf Hitler gained power by having Nazis elected to which part of the German government? (p. 456-457)                          | f The Communists seized control by instituting a one-party rule, suppressing individual liberties, and punishing their opponents.                                              |
| 7 What did Japanese military leaders believe was the only way for Japan to get the resources it required? (p. 457)                | g The fascists believed that nations became great through military might and territorial expansion.                                                                            |
| 8 What were Americans discouraged by the rise of dictatorships in Europe and Asia? (p. 458)                                       | h Warring nations could buy non-military goods on a "cash-and-carry" basis, meaning they could not receive any loans, and they also had to transport goods in their own ships. |
| 9 What were the findings of the Nye Committee? (p. 458)                                                                           | i Roosevelt determined that since China and Japan had not declared war on each other, the Neutrality Act of 1937 did not apply.                                                |
| 10 After passage of the Neutrality Act of 1937, how could warring nations buy non-military goods from the United States? (p. 459) | j That arms factories had made huge profits from the war.                                                                                                                      |
| 11 What is the name for the idea that trade between nations creates prosperity and helps to prevent war? (p. 459)                 | k The rise of dictatorships made the sacrifices that Americans had made during World War I seems pointless.                                                                    |
| 12 What was Roosevelt's reason for authorizing the sale of arms to China? (p. 459)                                                | l internationalism                                                                                                                                                             |
