The Holocaust, which took place during World War II, stands as one of the darkest chapters in human history. This essay explores the period from the start of persecution in 1933 to the end of the war in 1945, tracing the rise of Nazi Germany and the systematic extermination of innocent people, primarily Jews, but also others.

The persecution of targeted groups began in 1933, when the Nazis came to power in Germany. They used a combination of laws, violence, and propaganda to strip Jews and other minorities of their rights and isolate them from society.

The "Final Solution" was the Nazis' plan to exterminate the Jews. It involved the use of gas chambers and other methods of mass murder.

By the end of the war in 1945, the Nazis had killed approximately six million Jews and millions of other victims.

No prep lesson

Why were the strategies used by the Nazis to persecute the Jews?

In your own words, describe what the "Final Solution" meant.
