The Nature of Accounting Regulation Ian Dennis,2013-10-15 Accounting standards are an essential element in the regulation of current financial reporting Standard setters promulgate such standards and companies and professional accountants follow them in preparing financial reports Although much has been written about the history of standard setting the conceptual underpinnings of accounting standards the process of setting them and whether such standards should be rules based or principles based there has been little written about the kind of thing they are This book examines the nature of accounting standards and the very idea of a rule of implementation guidance and of the objectives that are included in them It enables the reader to grasp the reasons for promulgating standards the role of the conceptual framework in setting standards in an institutional context and the kind of rules that are useful in regulating financial reporting The insights provided by this examination are used to throw light on the distinction between principles based and rules based standards and on the nature of good accounting standards Assessment and Evaluation Chris Bell,Duncan Harris,2006 First

Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company World Yearbook of Education 1969 Joseph A. Lauwerys,David G. Scanlon,2013-10-28 First Published in 2005 Almost everywhere policies designed to broaden access to education and to promote equality of opportunity are now pursued In consequence the importance of examinations grows since success in them determines entry to higher education and thus to professional posts They are therefore a major instrument of social mobility and promotion which affects social structure by applying criteria of selection nearly always accepted unconsciously and uncritically The aim of this text in selecting Examinations as the theme of the 1969 WORLD YEAR BOOK was to present a comparative analysis of the way in which examinations are devised administered and assessed to find out why we are examining and to look at the ways in which we examine to see if these are efficient relevant and reliable
