University-Community Engagement in the Asia Pacific Christopher S. Collins, 2017-01-12 This edited volume provides a framework for understanding academic public good and offers case studies and perspectives as in depth examples of the ways in which colleges and universities engage with the community to produce social benefits Focusing on the Asia Pacific region the authors discuss examples of engagement that produce consciousness partnerships and services that are broadly available to the public and enhance the progress of society The authors argue that unlike an individual degree these are public benefits that should be focused upon and featured more readily so that the breadth of university benefits come to be better understood

Research and Evaluation in Community, Health and Social Care Settings Suzanne Guerin,Nóirín Hayes,Sinéad McNally,2017-12-12 How can we develop a comprehensive understanding of the research process in community health and social care settings Covering all stages of the research process from funding to dissemination this book considers the views of funders researchers communities and policy makers Drawing on practical examples and relevant international literature it sheds light on issues that can arise in the process and presents solutions and strategies to deal with a range of challenges Organised around a series of themes that capture the essential elements of the research process including covering framing research in theory commissioning and designing research utilisation of findings and knowledge transfer this book provides practical guidance for those involved in child welfare and education nursing and clinical practices community studies and the social sciences It will be a key resource for all those who are interested in developing their understanding of the research and evaluation process in these areas

Integrative Learning Daniel Blackshields,James Cronin,Bettie Higgs,Shane Kilcommins,Marian McCarthy,Anthony Ryan,2014-11-13 Current teaching learning and assessment practices can lead students to believe that courses within a programme are self sufficient and separate Integrative Learning explores this issue and considers how intentional learning helps students become integrative thinkers who can see connections in seemingly disparate information and draw on a wide range of knowledge to make decisions Written by international contributors who engaged reflectively with their teaching and their students learning the book seeks to develop a shared language of integrative learning encouraging students to adapt skills learned in one situation to problems encountered in another and make autonomous connections across courses between experiences and throughout their lives More informed teachers can help students develop the necessary attributes for intentional learning which include having a sense of purpose fitting fragmentary information into a learning framework understanding something of their own learning processes asking probing questions reflecting on their own choices and knowing when to ask for help Integrative Learning draws on international research and vast studies to provide the reader with the resources to ensure access to a unified learning experience The book discusses conceptual and technical tools necessary for facilitating integrative learning across a range of disciplines as well as providing learning pedagogies and considers integrative learning in the context of the relevance of higher education in the complexity and uncertainty of the 21st century It will appeal to academics and researchers in the field of higher education as well as those generating higher education curriculums

Higher Education

Pathways Ashwin, Paul, Case, Jennifer M., 2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Handbook of Education Policy Gerard A. Postiglione, Christopher J.

Johnstone, Wesley R. Teter, 2023-01-20 This insightful Handbook is an essential guide to educational policy around the world As shifting geopolitics intensified climate change and widening economic inequalities persist the need for informed educational policy is critical The Cambridge Handbook of Service Learning and Community Engagement Corey

Dolgon, Tania D. Mitchell, Timothy K. Eatman, 2017-02-01 With contributions from leading experts across disciplinary fields this book explores best practices from the field's most notable researchers as well as important historically based and politically focused challenges to a field whose impact has reached an important crossroads The comprehensive and powerfully critical analysis considers the history of community engagement and service learning best teaching practices and pedagogies engagement across disciplines and current research and policies and contemplates the future of the field The book will not only inform faculty staff and students on ways to improve their work but also suggest a bigger social and political focus for programs intended to seriously establish democracy and social justice in their communities and campuses

Higher education for democratic innovation Bergan, Sjur, Gallagher, Tony, Harkavy, Ira, 2016-02-22 Democracy is increasingly the standard against which societies are measured The term democratic culture designates the set of attitudes and behaviours that citizens need to have for democratic institutions and laws to function in practice This is an important development from older perceptions of democracy which focused on institutions laws and procedures It is a recognition that democracy will not function unless citizens want it to function In all countries there are committed individuals aspiring to make their societies better democracies As the Secretary General of the Council of Europe Thorbjørn Jagland has said on several occasions our societies seek to address 21st century issues through 19th century institutions Through contributions by authors from Europe North America and other parts of the world this book explores how higher education can help find new ways to develop commitment to public space and societal engagement and make democracy more vibrant Ground Truths Chad Raphael, Martha Matsuoka, 2024-01-09 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more This is the first book devoted entirely to summarizing the body of community engaged research on environmental justice how we can conduct more of it and how we can do it better It shows how community engaged research makes unique contributions to environmental justice for Black Indigenous people of color and low income communities by centering local knowledge building truth from the ground up producing actionable data that can influence decisions and transforming researchers relationships to communities for equity and mutual benefit The book offers a critical synthesis of relevant research in many fields outlines the main steps in conducting community engaged research evaluates the major research methods used suggests new directions and addresses overcoming institutional barriers to scholarship in academia The coauthors employ an original framework that shows how community engaged research and environmental justice align which links research on the many topics treated in the chapters from public health urban planning and conservation to law and policy community economic development and food justice and sovereignty

The Public Understanding of Law Peter Smith, 2025-05-14 This insightful book discusses how law schools engage with the public to develop their understanding of the law It shows that effective engagement necessitates recognising the people involved as a shared community working towards both individual and collective goals

International Perspectives on Undergraduate Research Nancy H. Hensel, Patrick Blessinger, 2020-12-21 This edited volume explores how undergraduate research and research based teaching is being implemented in countries around the world Leading educators come together to discuss commonly accepted definitions of undergraduate research country specific models and partnerships for student research university policies and practices to support faculty and staff who engage students in research and available assessment data that supports the effectiveness of undergraduate research as a means to increase student engagement and academic achievement As undergraduate research has spread around the world professors administrators and policymakers benefit by learning about other approaches and models of undergraduate research

Remaking Communities and Adult Learning, 2022-05-09 What responses is adult education providing to the great global problems climate change and the environment populism and racism gender inequality social and economic inequality The ESREA Research Network between Local and Global Adult Learning and Communities and the authors collected here argue for socially engaged community based research which promotes critical democracy and popular education and drives powerful research methodologies participatory research feminist research ecological research activism posthumanist research and more The first part of the book looks back and forwards to the contribution to adult learning and community development played by participatory research in the making and remaking of community and society In the second part the focus shifts to pedagogies of possibility and change knowledge creation and the transformation of pedagogies of inclusion The third part on activism and change turns its attention to the motivations for activism and their individual and collective forms of expression The final part considers re making and doing society and community in particular during the COVID 19 pandemic For researchers interested in participatory and emancipatory social research gender and biography research or community university research partnerships Remaking Communities and Adult Learning presents adult learning as a site of resistance for sustainable and creative andragogic practice      Routledge Handbook of Counter-Narratives Klarissa

Lueg, Marianne Wolff Lundholt, 2020-10-22 Routledge Handbook of Counter Narratives is a landmark volume providing students university lecturers and practitioners with a comprehensive and structured guide to the major topics and trends of research on counter narratives The concept of counter narratives covers resistance and opposition as told and framed by individuals and social groups Counter narratives are stories impacting on social settings that stand opposed to perceived dominant and powerful master narratives In sum the contributions in this handbook survey how counter narratives unfold power to shape and change various fields Fields investigated in this handbook are organizations and professional settings issues of education struggles and concepts of identity and belonging the political field as well as literature and ideology The handbook is framed by a comprehensive introduction as well as a summarizing chapter providing an outlook on future research avenues Its direct and clear appeal will support university learning and prompt both students and researchers to further investigate the arena of narrative research      Gifts, Virtues and Obligations of University Volunteering Joanna

Puckering, 2021-11-29 This book takes a critical grounded and ethnographic approach to elicit a deeper understanding of university volunteering Anthropological theories of reciprocal gift exchange are used to re visit some of the value laden and at times conflicting ways of understanding volunteering as freely undertaken or coerced altruistic or self interested It also explores how some of the changing uses and expectations of volunteering are related to the exercise of power and to the effect of social norms or structural constraints on agency The book contains a detailed case study of a UK university focusing on its relationships with local communities and voluntary organisations to illustrate the complex and culturally situated nature of volunteering and the gift Joanna Puckering also draws on examples from countries such as the United States and Australia to address wider questions of why people do what they do and why volunteering motives and outcomes attract differing interpretations This volume will be relevant to scholars from anthropology sociology and geography as well as those involved in the higher education and voluntary corporate and social enterprise sectors      Bridging Knowledge Cultures

, 2023-11-20 Establishing truly respectful mutually beneficial and equitable knowledge creation partnerships with diverse communities poses significant challenges for academia Bridging Knowledge Cultures provides valuable insights into the dynamics involved and the obstacles encountered when attempting to establish meaningful research partnerships between different knowledge domains This book goes beyond exploration by offering practical recommendations to overcome these challenges and forge effective collaboration between mainstream research institutions and community groups and organizations This book includes ten compelling case studies conducted by research and training hubs established through the global Knowledge for Change Consortium These case studies encompass community university research partnerships across various geographical locations tackling a wide range of societal issues and acknowledging the wealth of knowledge created by local communities The overarching goal of this book is to inspire the next generation of researchers and professionals to embrace the richness of diverse perspectives and knowledge cultures By advocating for the construction of bridges through practical approaches the book encourages a shift from competition to collaboration in research Ultimately it aims to foster an environment where different forms of knowledge can intersect and thrive leading to a more inclusive and comprehensive understanding of the world around us
