Rickels, 2008 Since 1974 German filmmaker Ulrike Ottinger has created a substantial body of films that explore a world of difference defined by the tension and transfer between settled and nomadic ways of life In many of her films including Exile Shanghai an experimental documentary about the Jews of Shanghai and Joan of Arc of Mongolia in which passengers on the Trans Siberian Express are abducted by Mongolian bandits she also probes the encounter with the other whether exotic or simply unpredictable In Ulrike Ottinger Laurence A Rickels offers a series of sensitive and original analyses of Ottinger's films as well as her more recent photographic artworks situated within a dazzling thought experiment centered on the history of art cinema through the turn of the twenty first century In addition to commemorating the death of a once vital art form this book also affirms Ottinger's defiantly optimistic turn toward the documentary film as a means of mediating present clashes between tradition and modernity between the local and the global Widely regarded as a singular and provocative talent Ottinger's conspicuous absence from critical discourse is for Rickels symptomatic of the art cinema's demise Incorporating interviews he conducted with Ottinger and illustrated with stunning examples from her photographic oeuvre this book takes up the challenges posed by Ottinger's filmography to interrogate ultimately the very practice and possibility of art cinema today Laurence A Rickels is professor of German and comparative literature at the University of California Santa Barbara and the author of several books including The Case of California The Vampire Lectures and the three volume Nazi Psychoanalysis all published by Minnesota He is a recognized art writer whose reflections on contemporary visual art appear regularly in numerous exhibition catalogues as well as in Artforum artUS and Flash Art I Am Always With You Philip Temple, 2013-03-01 Based on real events in Germany this vividly told and deeply moving novel tells of one woman's love for a fellow artist her struggle to survive the war and her desperation to keep alive the spirit of creativity Most novels about the Nazi period portray Germans as the perpetrators of war and genocide This work provides an authentic insight into how ordinary Germans distinguished only by their artistic skill suffered under Nazi rule and the catastrophe of war Based on letters documents interviews and on the ground research in Germany and Poland the novel follows a young aspiring writer Maria Scholz from the time she arrives in Berlin in 1933 and meets sculptor Hermann Blumenthal They were to become key members of a community of artists at the heart of Hitler's Berlin part of an inner circle passively opposed to the Nazi regime and who were persecuted or declared degenerate This gripping narrative describes how they tried to keep alive free spirited creativity and the values of a universal humanity amid growing terror of a police state and it explores the tragedy that befell Maria as war brought the fire bombing of Berlin and the Russian invasion Temple's command of the subject is exemplary
