1) European diplomacy may refer to the various political agreements or alliances made by the European powers with the intention to maintain stable international relations amongst one another. Therefore, the greatest achievement of European diplomacy would be the attainment of solid amicable relations among the European powers, in the hope of preventing or preventing the onset of a war in the region. The Eastern Crisis would have had great chance to have escalated to an international war that would have damaged the relations in the Eastern region. However, this threatening potential for war was swiftly averted by the Berlin Congress, where Germany acted as a mediator. This feat of European diplomacy was able to find temporary solutions to ease of the intractable problems faced.
