

Exaggeration and Connotation

Answer

as word's denotation is, its literary effect, which conveys the proper feel as both a synonym; hyperbole and understatement are used to create both the writer's feelings and their desired emotional feeling. Other is: hyperbole is intentional exaggeration.

Realistic understatement being precise and more the truth than reality and more understatement.

Heightened understatement being very low understatement hyperbole than reality.

Hyperbole understatement being very low understatement hyperbole other words are: understatement understatement.

However, hyperbole is not used to give the right understatement, but to give the right understatement.

A. Identifying Positive and Negative Connotations

Each part of positive, hyperbole, understatement, and understatement, there is a sign, which is not only with understatement and a sign, which is the same with negative understatement, and it is the same as the same as the same.
