Metaphor And Writing Philip Eubanks:

Metaphor and Writing Philip Eubanks, 2010-11-04 This volume explains how metaphors metonymies and other figures of thought interact cognitively and rhetorically to tell us what writing is and what it should do Drawing on interviews with writing professionals and published commentary about writing it argues that our everyday metaphors and metonymies for writing are part of a figurative rhetoric of writing a pattern of discourse and thought that includes ways we categorize writers and writing stories we tell about people who write conceptual metaphors and metonymies used both to describe and to guide writing and familiar yet surprisingly adaptable conceptual blends used routinely for imagining writing situations The book will give scholars a fresh understanding of concepts such as voice self clarity power and the most basic figure of all the writer

Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini, 2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice Disrupting the Center explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center's partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing

Geographies of Writing Nedra Reynolds, 2007-09-03 Twenty first century technological innovations have revolutionized the way we experience space causing an increased sense of fragmentation danger and placelessness In Geographies of Writing Inhabiting Places and Encountering Difference Nedra Reynolds addresses these problems in the context of higher education arguing that theories of writing and rhetoric must engage the metaphorical implications of place without ignoring materiality Geographies of

Writing makes three closely related contributions one theoretical to reimagine composing as spatial material and visual one political to understand the sociospatial construction of difference and one pedagogical to teach writing as a set of spatial practices Aided by seven maps and illustrations that reinforce the book's visual rhetoric Geographies of Writing shows how composition tasks and electronic space function as conduits for navigating reality

A War of Words in the Discourse of Trade Philip Eubanks, 2000 Trade as War is the case study of a conceptual metaphor one that underlies specific and expressed metaphors that Eubanks English Northern Illinois U uses to argue that the conceptual metaphor view combined with an understanding of metaphor as rhetorically constituted makes obsolete almost all the assumptions that have previously guided metaphor study from handbooks of advice to cognitive science Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The True Identity of the People of the Way Ross Daniel Harmon, 2024-10-24 The True Identity of the People of the Way demonstrates that Luke alludes to the book of Proverbs when Luke in Acts 9 and following calls the Church the Way Consequently this study shows that Luke identifies the people of the Way as followers of the one and true God depicted in Proverbs Within Acts Luke's claim was likely shocking to the Jewish people which relates directly to the function of the Way This fresh perspective on the way metaphor in Acts provides a more natural and fitting referent than previous proposals and finds its function as a polemic between Jesus followers and others This research identified allusions and motifs in literature to determine that Luke uses the way metaphor to describe Christ's followers The study first shows the need for research concerning Luke's motive or referent for calling the Church the Way Second the study examines the probability of Proverbs influence on Luke Third the study provides an in depth analysis of the way metaphor in Acts concluding that Proverbs is the referent of the Way when referring to the Church
