

Self-Assessment Paper

Topic: Describe your personality at work, using either the Meyers-Briggs typology, or other widely recognized personality characteristics. Give specific suggestions for pitfalls to be aware of and adaptations you may have to make, in order to improve your effectiveness.

Understanding who I am is critical in order to improve myself and to be successful in the workplace. In this paper, I will analyze my personality at work based on my managerial experience and the result of the Meyers-Briggs typology. From the assessment of my personality at work, I will reflect upon possible solutions for my weaknesses in order to improve my effectiveness in the workplace.

For three years, I was an academic supervisor at Young-do English Institution, which helps K-12 students learn the language from English-native instructors in South Korea. I was in charge of training and managing foreign teachers and counseling students and parents. Since most of my duties were related to dealing with different individuals and groups of people, I could discover my strong and weak points while interacting with people at my job.

According to Meyers-Briggs typology, my personality type is SP, so one of my strong points is negotiating. Fortunately, major responsibilities of my job included negotiating and communicating among different parties. For instance, when Korean executives released new policies, I had to convey the announcement to our faculty members and had to persuade why teachers should follow this direction. Since the culture and the way of thinking are different from
