Exile from Space Judith Merrill, 2016-04-26 They worried about the impression she'd make Who could imagine that she'd fall in love passionately the way others of her blood must have done Who was this strange girl who had been born in this place and still it wasn't her home

Exile from Space Merrill Judith, 2016-06-23 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

The Production of Space in Latin Literature William Fitzgerald, Efrossini Spentzou, 2018 Recent decades have seen a marked shift in approaches to cultural analysis with the advent of the spatial turn in the humanities and social sciences This volume applies the insights and approaches of this paradigm to the Roman engagement with space exploring its representation and manipulation in Latin literature

The Closure of Space in Roman Poetics Victoria Rimell, 2015-06-05 This ambitious book investigates a major yet underexplored nexus of themes in Roman cultural history the evolving tropes of enclosure retreat and compressed space within an expanding potentially borderless empire In Roman writers exploration of real and symbolic enclosures caves corners villas bathhouses the prison of the human body itself we see the aesthetic philosophical and political intersecting in fascinating ways as the machine of empire is recast in tighter and tighter shapes Victoria Rimell brings ideas and methods from literary theory cultural studies and philosophy to bear on an extraordinary range of ancient texts rarely studied in juxtaposition from Horace's Odes Virgil's Aeneid and Ovid's Ibis to Seneca's Letters Statius Achilleid and Tacitus Annals A series of epilogues puts these texts in conceptual dialogue with our own contemporary art world and emphasizes the role Rome's imagination has played in the history of Western thinking about space security and dwelling

Gender and Space in British Literature, 1660-1820 Mona Narain, Karen Gevirtz, 2016-04-15 Between 1660 and 1820 Great Britain experienced significant structural transformations in class politics economy print and writing that produced new and varied spaces and with them new and reconfigured concepts of gender In mapping the relationship between gender and space in British literature of the period this collection defines charts and explores new cartographies both geographic and figurative The contributors take up a variety of genres and discursive frameworks from this period including poetry the early novel letters and laboratory notebooks written by authors ranging from Aphra Behn Hortense Mancini and Isaac Newton to Frances Burney and Germaine de Staël Arranged in three groups Inside Outside and Borderlands the essays conduct targeted literary analysis and explore the changing relationship between gender and different kinds of spaces in the long eighteenth century In addition a set of essays on Charlotte Smith's novels and a set of essays on natural philosophy offer case studies for exploring issues of gender and space within larger fields such as an author's oeuvre or a particular discourse Taken together the essays demonstrate space's agency as a complement to historical change as they explore how literature delineates the gendered redefinition, occupation, negotiation, inscription and creation of new spaces, crucially contributing to the construction of new cartographies in eighteenth and early nineteenth century England. Space, Time and Language in Plutarch Aristoula Georgiadou, Katerina Oikonomopoulou, 2017-10-10. Space and time have been key concepts of investigation in the humanities in recent years. In the field of Classics, in particular, they have led to the fresh appraisal of genres such as epic historiography, the novel and biography by enabling a close focus on how ancient texts invest their representations of space and time with a variety of symbolic and cultural meanings. This collection of essays by a team of international scholars seeks to make a contribution to this rich interdisciplinary field by exploring how space and time are perceived linguistically, codified and portrayed in the biographical and philosophical work of Plutarch of Chaeronea, 1st-2nd centuries CE. The volume's aim is to show how philological approaches in conjunction with socio-cultural readings can shed light on Plutarch's spatial terminology and clarify his conceptions of time, especially in terms of the ways in which he situates himself in his era's fascination with the past. The volume's intended readership includes Classicists, intellectual and cultural historians and scholars whose field of expertise embraces the theoretical study of space and time along with the linguistic strategies used to portray them in literary or historical texts. Jesus as Means and Locus of Worship in the Fourth Gospel Kathleen Troost-Cramer, 2017-11-07. The anti-Semitic Gospel: this is how the book of John is frequently described and perceived thanks to the pervasive presence of the Jews as Jesus' enemies who harass the Son of God to his death. But how accurate is this assessment? This book presents John as Jewish to its core: a record of first-century Judaism's searching for a place of worship after the traumatic destruction of the Jerusalem temple in 70 CE. As Judean religious authorities regrouped to redefine the faith of Israel, the Jesus sect within Judaism took a different course, proposing that worship was not to be found in Torah study or in the temples of Roman civic religion but in the person of Jesus, Israel's Messiah. John achieved this by presenting Jesus as the sacrifice demanded of all worship in the ancient Mediterranean: the temple in which sacrifice was performed and the priest who offers the sacrifice with those who embraced this sacrifice as Israel in the wilderness, possessing the divine Presence in its midst. Relying on traditions of the Binding of Isaac, the Suffering Servant and Jewish temple rites, John far from proclaiming the futility of Jewish worship seeks to preserve it in the person of Jesus. Harper's Young People, 1885.

Spaces of Creation Allison Connolly, 2016-11-09. Drawing links between the Francophone literatures of Canada, the French Caribbean and North Africa, Spaces of Creation demonstrates that problematic issues of dynamic postcolonial societies can and do fuel creative acts on the part of women. The trying experiences of displaced mothers and their daughters, including isolation, domestic violence and single parenthood, often serve to inspire introspection and creative action. In effect, their painful, frustrating existence provides the opportunity, the space of creation necessary to weave and transmit stories. Organized around different manifestations of culturally diverse or transcultural spaces depicted in postcolonial literature.

rural villages domestic spaces city centers and spaces of otherness the monograph uncovers the complexities of mothering and daughtering in contemporary Francophone contexts Through discussion of these spaces the book attests to a specifically feminine transculturality This vision of diversity acknowledges both the heartening and tragic aspects of life in dynamic multicultural communities revealing creative synergies between the literatures of different Francophone diasporas and inviting the reader to reconsider the mother daughter relationship Polydoxy Catherine Keller,Laurel Schneider,2010-10-04 The essays in this book take an exciting and creative approach to doing theology in the twenty first century Map is not Territory Jonathan Z. Smith,2023-07-17 Grief Day by Day Alan D Wolfelt,2018-10-01 When we are grieving the death of someone loved we may struggle with making it through each day How are we supposed to cope with our gut wrenching grief and live our daily lives at the same time What should we do with our chaotic painful and intrusive thoughts and feelings How do we survive And is it possible to both grieve and live with meaning and hope If you ve been asking yourself such questions this book by one of the world s most beloved grief counselors provides affirmation and answers Rituals give us something to do with our grief Simple everyday practices can give structure to our grief and hold us up us when we re feeling like we might collapse In fact when we re in grief rituals are essentially effective beelines to healing Learn what makes a ritual a ritual Spoiler alert Rituals can be easy and fast Try some of the many solo rituals gathered here such as letter writing meditating intentional emoting grief walks and the 10 minute grief encounter And reach out to friends and loved ones who might like to get together for one of the simple group ceremonies By incorporating the healing power of ritual into your days you ll be not only surviving your grief you ll be building in meaning and hope so that you can go on to thrive Time and Space in Ancient Myth, Religion and Culture SNF-Projekt,Menelaos Christopoulos,Athina Papachrysostomou,2017-10-10 From Homer to Sophocles and Greek Middle Comedy and from Plato and Protagoras to Ovid this volume features a panoramic and cross generic overview of the diverse handling and ad hoc elaboration of the overarching literary notions of time and space The twenty one contributions of this volume written by an international group of esteemed scholars provide an equal number of hermeneutic approaches to individual distinct aspects of Greek and Latin literature The volume is purposely designed not as a linear display of knowledge but rather as an anthology of select paradigms that aim to demonstrate the multidimensional function and multifaceted role of the twin notions of time and space throughout ancient Greek and Latin literary texts The volume opens with analyses of conspicuous cases from epic poetry proceeds with examples from drama tragedy and comedy and concludes with diverse instances of chronotopes empirical imaginary and even shifting ones in various literary genres The volume is of greatest relevance since it meets the cultural and theoretical trends of today s Classics It therefore will attract not only the interest of specialised Classicists but it is also intended for a wider general readership The Camp Colman Hogan,Marta Marin-Dòmine,2021-02-03 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of identity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony to bear witness is to place oneself in one's own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living

Harper, Dimitar Kambourov, 2020-11-12 Bulgarian Literature as World Literature examines key aspects and manifestations of 20th and 21st century Bulgarian literature by way of the global literary landscape The first volume to bring together in English the perspectives of prominent writers translators and scholars of Bulgarian literature and culture this long overdue collection identifies correlations between national and world aesthetic ideologies and literary traditions It situates Bulgarian literature within an array of contexts and foregrounds a complex interplay of changing internal and external forces These forces shaped not only the first collaborative efforts at the turn of the 20th century to insert Bulgarian literature into the world's literary repository but also the work of contemporary Bulgarian diaspora authors Mapping histories geographies economies and genetics the contributors assess the magnitudes and directions of such forces in order to articulate how a distinctly national minor literature produced for internal use and nearly invisible globally until the last decade transforms into world literature today
