Your Curriculum Companion: Libby Woodfin, Suzanne Nathan Plaut, Sarah Boddy Norris, 2021-02-01. This essential guide to the EL Education 6-8 Language Arts Curriculum is one part roadmap to the curriculum, one part orientation to its instructional practices, and one part coach to answer your questions, relieve your stress, and put you and your students on the path to success. Your Curriculum Companion explores the foundations of the curriculum, including the principles and research it was built on, and the instructional practices that make it unique. The book is designed to help you look under the hood at practices embedded throughout the curriculum so that you can sharpen your instruction, support students to be leaders of their own learning, and make well-informed changes to best meet your students' needs. Key features of Your Curriculum Companion include: Twenty-two accompanying videos see the curriculum in action; Task cards for guidance on how to plan when the planning has been done for you; A deep dive into the purpose and structure of close reading, including a sample annotated lesson; An exploration of the relationship between reading and writing and how the curriculum is designed to help students become strong communicators, including an annotated read-think-talk-write lesson; The why, what, and how of supporting students to meet grade-level expectations; supporting students who need additional challenges and supporting English language learners; Guidance for turning evidence of student progress into usable data that can inform your instruction; Support for school leaders.

Justice Seekers Lacey Robinson, 2023-07-04. Revolutionary solutions for an American school system that is systemically failing Black and brown children. In Justice Seekers, celebrated social justice activist and veteran educator Lacey Robinson delivers an engaging combination of storytelling and research that explains why justice is something that is happening or not happening inside the classroom and within the details of teaching and learning. You'll explore ways to identify and eliminate the shame-inducing pedagogies impacting Black and brown children from classrooms and the world at large. In the book, you'll discover the many ways that justice is in the details of race pedagogy and standards-driven education, as well as strategies for challenging educators to see the ways in which they can contribute to eradicating racial inequity from the classroom and from society. New ways to recognize and reduce the impact of low cognitive demand material presented to Black and brown children in schools across America. Methods for improving the quality of your own teaching here and now. An intuitive and exciting roadmap for K-12 teachers, teachers in training, school administrators, and principals who aim to reverse the racial injustices today's children face every day. Justice Seekers
