university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Religion and Science Fiction James H. Thrall, 2024-05-17 Religion and Science Fiction An Introduction guides students into deeper understanding of how religion and science fiction engage often overlapping questions This textbook introduces key ideas of religious studies through critical consideration of print and visual media that fall within the general category of science fiction The goal throughout is to help students move beyond simply identifying points of interrelation between religious studies and forms of what is often called more broadly speculative fiction to considering how the studied texts open new ways of thinking about human and nonhuman experience taken to be religious With discussion guestions lists of key terms extensive additional resources and suggestions for projects and essay questions this book is a foundational text for students and instructors of religion and World History Encyclopedia [21 volumes] Alfred J. Andrea Ph.D., 2011-03-23 An unprecedented science fiction undertaking by academics reflecting an extraordinary vision of world history this landmark multivolume encyclopedia focuses on specific themes of human development across cultures era by era providing the most in depth expansive presentation available of the development of humanity from a global perspective Well known and widely respected historians worked together to create and guide the project in order to offer the most up to date visions available A monumental undertaking A stunning academic achievement ABC CLIO's World History Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive work to take a large scale thematic look at the human species worldwide Comprised of 21 volumes covering 9 eras an introductory volume and an index it charts the extraordinary journey of humankind revealing crucial connections among civilizations in different regions through the ages Within each era the encyclopedia highlights pivotal interactions and exchanges among cultures within eight broad thematic categories population and environment society and culture migration and travel politics and statecraft economics and trade conflict and cooperation thought and religion science and technology Aligned to national history standards and packed with images primary resources current citations and extensive teaching and learning support the World History Encyclopedia gives students educators researchers and interested general readers a means of navigating the broad sweep of history unlike any ever published Eastern Orthodox Christianity and American Higher Education Ann Mitsakos Bezzerides, Elizabeth H. Prodromou, 2017-01-15 Over the last two decades the American academy has engaged in a wide ranging discourse on faith and learning religion and higher education and Christianity and the academy Eastern

Orthodox Christians however have rarely participated in these conversations. The contributors to this volume aim to reverse this trend by offering original insights from Orthodox Christian perspectives that contribute to the ongoing discussion about religion higher education and faith and learning in the United States. The book is divided into two parts Essays in the first part explore the historical experiences and theological traditions that inform and sometimes explain Orthodox approaches to the topic of religion and higher education in ways that often set them apart from their Protestant and Roman Catholic counterparts. Those in the second part problematize and reflect on Orthodox thought and practice from diverse disciplinary contexts in contemporary higher education. The contributors to this volume offer provocative insights into philosophical questions about the relevance and application of Orthodox ideas in the religious and secular academy as well as cross disciplinary treatments of Orthodoxy as an identity marker pedagogical framework and teaching and research subject

Primary Source Readings in World Religions Jeffrey Brodd, 2009 Primary Source Readings in World Religions provides your students with the opportunity to read foundational texts from the major world religions Through understanding other religions we can create an atmosphere of genuine respect and honest discussion In doing this we can respond to the invitation Pope Benedict XVI extended to all of us when he said I encourage all religious groups in America to persevere in their collaboration and thus enrich public life with the spiritual values that motivate your action in the world from Benedict XVI Meeting with Representatives of Other Religions In Primary Source Readings in World Religions you will find portions of the foundational texts and teachings of a wide variety of world religions including Islam Shinto Confucianism Sikhism Judaism Hinduism Taoism Christianity and Buddhism The Holy Spirit and Ch'i (Qi) Koo Dong Yun, 2012-03-02 This book articulates a contextual pneumatology from a perspective of the Eastern idea of chi ki in Korean Rather than understanding the Spirit from a Westernized philosophical perspective this book utilizes East Asian categories rooted in the I Ching and Asian religions in dialogue with such prominent Western theologians as Barth Pannenberg Moltmann and Harvey Cox The result is an exciting interaction between the Bible traditions of the West and experiences of the Spirit rooted in East Asia Yun argues that the formal dimension of the Spirit sangleok is present and active in all cultures and religions while the material dimension of the Spirit muljeok is categorically revealed and embodied through the life of Jesus Christ the event of Pentecost and Charisms given to the church In making his case he mediates a creative balance between countercultural and exclusivist models on the one hand and pluralistic and anthropocentric models on the other Religion in Mind Jensine Andresen, 2001-06-28 Religion in Mind is a 2001 text which summarizes and extends the advances in the cognitive study of religion throughout the 1990s It uses empirical research from psychology and anthropology to illuminate various components of religious belief ritual and experience The book examines cognitive dimensions of religion within a naturalistic view of culture while respecting the phenomenology of religion and drawing together teachers of religion psychologists of religion and cognitive scientists Expert contributors focus on phenomena such as belief fixation and transmission attributions of agency anthropomorphizing counterintuitive religious representations the well formedness of religious rituals links between religious representations and emotions and the development of god concepts The work encourages greater interdisciplinary linkages between scholars from different fields and will be of interest to researchers in anthropology psychology sociology history philosophy and cognitive science It also will interest more general readers in religion and science of World Religions Tomoko Masuzawa, 2024-05-31 The idea of world religions expresses a vague commitment to multiculturalism Not merely a descriptive concept world religions is actually a particular ethos a pluralist ideology a logic of classification and a form of knowledge that has shaped the study of religion and infiltrated ordinary language In this ambitious study Tomoko Masuzawa examines the emergence of world religions in modern European thought Devoting particular attention to the relation between the comparative study of language and the nascent science of religion she demonstrates how new classifications of language and race caused Buddhism and Islam to gain special significance as these religions came to be seen in opposing terms Aryan on one hand and Semitic on the other Masuzawa also explores the complex relation of world religions to Protestant theology from the hierarchical ordering of religions typical of the Christian supremacists of the nineteenth century to the aspirations of early twentieth century theologian Ernst Troeltsch who embraced the pluralist logic of world religions and by so doing sought to reclaim the universalist destiny of European The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Music and Culture Janet Sturman, 2019-02-26 The SAGE modernity Encyclopedia of Music and Culture presents key concepts in the study of music in its cultural context and provides an introduction to the discipline of ethnomusicology its methods concerns and its contributions to knowledge and understanding of the world's musical cultures styles and practices. The diverse voices of contributors to this encyclopedia confirm ethnomusicology s fundamental ethos of inclusion and respect for diversity Combined the multiplicity of topics and approaches are presented in an easy to search A Z format and offer a fresh perspective on the field and the subject of music in culture Key features include Approximately 730 signed articles authored by prominent scholars are arranged A to Z and published in a choice of print or electronic editions Pedagogical elements include Further Readings and Cross References to conclude each article and a Reader's Guide in the front matter organizing entries by broad topical or thematic areas Back matter includes an annotated Resource Guide to further research journals books and associations an appendix listing notable archives libraries and museums and a detailed Index The Index Reader's Guide themes and Cross References combine for thorough search and browse capabilities in the electronic edition Encyclopedic Dictionary of Cults, Sects, and World Religions Larry A.
