Israeli and Palestinian Collective Narratives in Conflict Adi Mana,Anan Srour,2020-09-16 Examining the social laboratory of the Israeli and Palestinian societies to better understand social conflicts and the construction of diverse and conflicting collective narratives this book gives readers a window into Professor Shifra Sagy s unique approach to intergroup conflicts and peace education With a focus on both theory and practice it describes the model of perceptions of collective narratives that she developed with her colleagues The contributions here offer insight into the intergroup conflicts between Israelis and Palestinians Palestinian Muslims and Christians Jewish National Religious and people of ultra Orthodox faith and Palestinians living in Israel and those living in the West Bank Perceptions of collective narratives help crystallize social identity a sense of community and national coherence and a culture of conflict Often this creates obstacles to peace and conflict resolution This book instead looks at how we can use these constructions to promote reconciliation

Summary of Steven Hassan's Combating Cult Mind Control Everest Media,2022-06-13T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I am a therapist who helps people who have been damaged by cults I help them start their lives over and avoid the trauma associated with the often illegal abduction method called deprogramming 2 I spoke with Bruce s parents who had flown to Boston from Minneapolis They wanted to bring him back to meet with me I asked Bruce about himself and why his parents were so concerned and he said they had not yet told him about pledge service 3 It is easy to help someone who is already in a cult but those who are being recruited are usually already under the group s control It is difficult to help people who have been in a cult for many years 4 I help people leave destructive cults and I do this by sensitizing them to the problem of mind control or undue influence It is difficult to help someone leave a cult so the best way to deal with this problem is to educate people about it
