

I was an elementary student when I heard about the JROTC program. My high school friends once told me about it and were encouraging me to join the program. Somewhere along everybody's life's, one exceeds a sense of leadership and moral standards. It is within and only within this program, in which you will find yourself succeeding in most that you do. Until I finally made my way to high school, I was known to be a cadet and additionally, a student also.

As a starter, I knew nothing but to learn from my remaining days as a cadet. As I gain more knowledge about the program, I've learned that JROTC creates a new way of thinking. JROTC has given me the opportunity on becoming a superior leader. Not only has this program inspires me, but also other cadets in doing excellent jobs for the benefits of themselves.

Because the program provides us with a brighter future, First Sergeant and hopefully other sergeant, are pleasing us with valuable and meaningful lectures every single day. They have given us the opportunity to take responsibility in whatever that we do, and that shows how considerate they are to us. JROTC is composed of many activities in which majority of cadets take advantage of.

Without the JROTC program, I would never get the chance to honor brave men and women who have risked their lives for the freedom of our people. It was through participation that the program provides us with common set of rules and commands to follow. Within these set of rules, we are to listen carefully, learn from it and take action. Through the ending of school year, I've found myself progressing.

I'm a Teacher Too... Brent M

Barry,2005-03 All too often in our great nation s history there seems to be some sort of a separation between the great expectations of the American Education system the greatness of our masses and the awesomeness of the Department of Defense Some have said No American Educator wants a solder sailor or airman telling them how to teach in the average American classroom The Roads I Traveled Joseph Henderson,2009-10 The Applica-Phobia of College Admissions P. J. Finer,2007-08-28 If you are preparing to apply to colleges and universities in the United Statesyou need this book College is one of the most expensive investment students will make Therefore helping students find the right college for them not only makes for happy students but helps parents feel more confident about the result College is not only a big decision that students have to make but it is also the foundation of their future success Students and parents are discovering that schools that a few years ago were considered second and even third tier schools have elevated their standards significantly With substantially more students applying and in some cases fewer spots available for the select colleges across the country schools are demanding higher grades and have higher test score criteria which seemingly place college out of reach The applicant pool changes annually thus nothing is carved in stone as to which students are accepted and which are not However the best chance of getting in to the school of your choice is to display your passion as to where you are headed in life starting in 9th grade High school seniors and college transfer students know how difficult it is to get into the top tier colleges today Creating a persuasive eye catching application requires creativity foresight and a marketable presentation as to what you can offer that will attract schools That is why the process has to start with a resume The student applying to college today must show schools why they are different from every other student applying If you showcase your abilities through the development of a talented resume and a strong essay admissions committees will have no choice but to fall in love with you Students must figure out how best to present themselves to admissions committees difficulties arise when students begin feeling anxiety their parents begin applying real or perceived pressure and the student crumbles The Applica phobia of College Admissions Why Getting in Starts With Your Resume is a how to guide for students navigating the Applica phobia of the application process Oftentimes students dont know where to start and the entire experience becomes overwhelming This book offers a program that assists students by mapping out the plan that will best suit them The book addresses how to explore your talents skills and aspirationsto create a picture of who you are how to identify the schools that are right for you how to determine which type of application to submit early action vs early decision binding vs non binding exercises to help determine what you can bring to a college or university that will create interest ideas for essay topics a step by step guide to writing a college application essay and sample essays to get your creative juices flowing techniques you can use in the interview to convince admissions committees you are the right candidate for their schools how to put your summers and out of school time to beneficial use with internships jobs and or community service and more Students who fall under The DREAM Act and Student Adjustment Act will have an opportunity to understand this favorable bi partisan legislation and the benefits it offers them and their communities This section also includes a listing of various grants loans and scholarships for which students can apply Colleges and universities across America have one goal to get the best students that fit within their ideals thoughts and personality Your job is to figure out what those components are and how you fit in and this book will help you

Coyne,Abigail R. Hall,2024-06-18 A copy of the top secret memo below recently came into our hands and we thought we should bring it to your attention Dear National Security Elite In an ideal world the public would simply accept whatever their leaders you in other words told them They would comply with restrictions and mandates not as a matter of mere obedience but as a matter of unquestionable patriotic duty But we don t live in an ideal world And with the fate of the world especially the world s wars in the hands of our enlightened benevolent and eminently responsible national security elite in your hands in other words we can t afford to risk opening the conversation to an informed public And we certainly can t risk asking for anything so antiquated as consent either Not when the stakes are this high You simply must learn How to control the narrative every narrative in your favor How to completely capture the media and effectively quash dissent How destroying liberty creates more liberty in the long long run Why top down economic planning here and abroad is your best friend How to flout international and of course domestic law and get away with it And much much more The danger with any book like this is obviously that it may fall into the wrong hands If any member of the general public should happen upon these pages the consequences would be fatal After all people may realize that the national security elite you in other words are not in fact all powerful harbingers of peace They may realize that you are literally a force for good armed and relentlessly attempting to bend the planet to your noble will And that realization would be nothing short of disastrous Don't let this book fall into the wrong hands Merciless in their penetrating analysis Christopher J Coyne and Abigail Hall have written the satirical portrait of America's contemporary military industrial complex Drawing inspiration from the 1936 classic How to Run a War by Bruce W Knight this book is a must read for anyone who would know the truth about America's endless wars and the people who run them The truth might just set us free It will certainly make you laugh Then really angry Gale Directory of Publications and Broadcast Media ,2008
