

March 25, 2010

Mr. Harry Winsor
505 Marine St.
Boulder, CO 80302 USA

Dear Mr. Winsor:

Thank you for your message received March 25, 2010 and your interest in Boeing.

As a global aerospace leader, Boeing receives many unsolicited ideas each year about how to improve our products and services. We are encouraged by this enthusiasm because it tells us that people around the world want to be better connected and protected.

Like many large companies, however, we do not accept unsolicited ideas. Experience showed that most ideas had already been considered by our engineers and that there can be unintended consequences to simply accepting these ideas. The time, cost and risk involved in processing them, therefore, were not justified by the benefits gained.

So while we appreciate your interest, we regret to inform you that we have disposed of your message and retained no copies. Please understand that this was done on the basis of an established company policy, not on the merit of your idea.

We appreciate your understanding in this matter, thank you again for your interest, and wish you well in your endeavors.

Sincerely,

The Boeing Company
