

SUBJECT		YEAR 9			LEARNING CYCLE 5
Module(s)	DPA - Dennis Kelly
Rationale	Why is this topic being taught? This topic is being taught as an introduction to Key Stage Four literature. This marks a jump up in sophistication, theme and plot of a modern play and pupils will be stretched and challenged with the ideas presented. This play has been chosen out of the 'modern text' selection due to the modern nature of the play, and the context, plot and characters will resonate with pupils. I believe it is important not only to discuss and teach plays from the canon, but also modern texts that can truly speak to the young people we teach. Why is this topic being taught now? After the Foundation Year in English this is the first topic of KS4. We have picked this topic first as it is accessible, quick to read and although heavy on depth and symbolism, it is scarce in terms of language techniques and difficulty. Therefore, in Year 11 pupils will be able to revisit the topic quickly and easily, without analysing the text fully again.
Learning Cycle Overview	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6	Week 7
	To grasp the plot of the play and to understand the characters	To have analysed Act 1 and to introduce the essay form.	To analyse Act 2 and to see character and theme development through the play.	To analyse Act 3 and to be introduced to a climatic tense moment. To focus on the theme of violence and consequences.	To analyse Act 4 and the resolution of the play, to sum up the overall themes and moments.	Revision/ Assessment	Cap week (review of topics Week 1-5)
