Explain Differences Between Funza Lushaka:

Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, Ronnie Donaldson, Cecil Seethal, 2016-09-20 ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , Enhancing Teacher Professionalism and Status Kimberly Ochs, Rolande Antoinette Degazon-Johnson, Commonwealth Secretariat, 2011 The Fifth Commonwealth Teachers Research Symposium brought together teachers researchers and education policy makers to share experiences from developed and developing countries both within and outside the Commonwealth This research event was a further contribution to ensuring that teachers with professional qualifications of good standard are able to move freely between countries of the Commonwealth and the wider world having those qualifications and skills recognized and valued Democracy and Decency Paul R. Carr, P. L. Thomas, Brad J. Porfilio, Julie A. Gorlewski, 2016-02-01 Democracy can mean a range of concepts covering everything from freedoms rights elections governments processes philosophies and a panoply of abstract and concrete notions that can be mediated by power positionality culture time and space Democracy can also be translated into brute force hegemony docility compliance and conformity as in wars will be decided on the basis of the needs of elites or major decisions about spending finite resources will be the domain of the few over the masses or people will be divided along the lines of race ethnicity class religion etc because it is advantageous for maintaining exploitative political systems in place to do so Often these frameworks are developed and reified based on the notion that elections give the right to societies or segments of societies to install regimes institutions and operating systems that are then supposedly legitimated and rendered infinitely just because formal power resides in the hands of those dominating forces This book is interested in advancing a critical analysis of the hegemonic paradigm described above one that seeks higher levels of political literacy and consciousness and one that makes the connection with education What does education have to do with democracy How does education shape influence impinge on impact negate facilitate and or change the context contours and realities of democracy How can we teach for and about democracy to alter and transform the essence of what democracy is and importantly what it should be This book advances the notion of decency in relation to democracy and is underpinned by an analysis of meaningful critically engaged education Is it enough to be kind nice generous and hopeful when we can also see signs of rampant entrenched and debilitating racism sexism poverty violence injustice war and other social inequalities If democracy is intended to be a legitimating force for good how does education inform democracy What types of knowledge experience analysis and being are helpful to bring about newer more meaningful and socially just forms of democracy Throughout some twenty chapters from a range of international scholars this book includes three sections Constructing Meanings for Democracy and Decency Justice for All as Praxis and Social Justice in Action for Democracy Decency and Diversity International Perspectives The underlying thread that is interwoven through the texts is a critical reappraisal of normative hegemonic interpretations of how power is infused into the educational realm and importantly how democracy can be re situated and re formulated so as to more meaningfully engage society and education

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship adapting Amartya Sen's capability approach and a framework of key concepts capabilities functionings context conversion factors poverty and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship Based on capability theorising and student voices the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life as well as work and future study the inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed Low Income Students Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa makes an original contribution to capabilitarian scholarship conceptually in theorising a South based multi dimensional student well being higher education matrix and a rich reconceptualisation of learning outcomes as well as empirically by conducting rigorous longitudinal in depth mixed methods research on students lives and experiences in higher education in South Africa The audience for the book includes higher education researchers international capabilitarian scholars practitioners and policy makers

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa's evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work

States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat,Amandine Le Bellec,Lucas Puygrenier,2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action
