Advocate, 1913 Family Time with God Peg Augustine, 2010-10-01 What is the number one gift parents want for their children? Their time. Children don't stay children forever so time spent with them today will become the memories cherished tomorrow. It is indeed a memorable treasure when families come together to learn about God's Word. Family Time With God is an outstanding resource that offers a full year's worth of activities parents can do with their children every day to help them grow spiritually and to build strong family relationships. Each week includes a Scripture text on which the activities for the week are based, a talk point that provides parents with a weekly theme to talk about with their children, a Bible story parents can read to their children, and a variety of activities for every day of the week which provide a basis for personal time spent with children.

Engaging with Faith Family Devotional Jenifer Metzger, 2022-10-04 Grow closer to Christ as a family. Each devotion includes a lively activity that helps illuminate Scripture and provides a great opportunity for family bonding, from going on nature walks to obstacle courses to family comedy night. Complete on your own timeline. This devotional offers busy families the flexibility they need; it can be used daily, weekly, or whenever schedules allow. Explore Biblical lessons through the awesome activities in this engaging family devotional.

No Peace Without Prayer Timothy Wright, 2013-11-07 Abbot Timothy Wright proposes sowing a small seed from which might grow a greater respect between the world's two largest religions, Christianity and Islam. Indeed, he believes that the seed has already been planted. Christians give unique value to their revealed Scriptures as the Word of God. Muslims speak of the Qur'an as God speaking to them. In No Peace without Prayer, Wright presents the case for developing this faith in the Word of God to establish groups of Christians and Muslims dedicated to sharing their respective Divine Word in ways that enhance the other. This is not a tussle for converts but a way into greater mutual understanding under the eye of the God who communicates this Word to create a new shared memory. Such is a work of prayer, a prayer that could lead to greater peace. The key word says Wright is partnership arising from their shared belief in the One God, creator of the universe, communicating with the human world and merciful to the repentant.

Drama and Curriculum John O'Toole, Madonna Stinson, Tiina Moore, 2009-03-17 Here is a knocking indeed, says the Porter in Shakespeare's Scottish play, Act II, Scene 3, and immediately puts himself into role in order to deal with the demands of such an early call after a late night of drinking and carousal. If a man were porter of hell gate, but what roles does the porter of curriculum gate take on in order to deal with drama's persistent demands for entry? Ah, that depends upon the temperature of the times. We who have been knocking for what seems to be a very long time know well that when evaluation and measurement criteria are demanded as evidence of drama's efficacy, an examiner stands as gatekeeper. When the educational landscape is in danger of overcrowding we meet a territorial governor And how often has the courtesan turned out to be only a tease because the arts are for a brief moment in the spotlight for their abilities to foster out of the box thinkers In this text we meet these commissionaires and many more The gatekeeping roles and what they represent are so familiar that they have become cliches to us We know them by their arguments ripostes dismissals their brief encouragement and lack of follow up And we know that behind each one however rmly they think they keep the keys is a nancial and political master whose power controls the curriculum building and everything in it Highlights for Children ,1963 Living and Learning ,1999
