Toy Theory Seth Giddings,2024-11-05 A novel interpretation of the history and theory of technology from the perspective of toys play and play objects Toy Theory addresses the relationships between toys and technology in two distinct but overlapping ways first as underexamined cultural artifacts and behaviors with significant technical attributes and second as playful and toylike dimensions of technology at large Seth Giddings sets out a toy theory of technology that emphasizes the speculative experimental and noninstrumental in technological paradigms and argues that children s playthings rather than being the most ephemeral and inconsequential of technical devices instead offer analytical and anthropological resources for understanding the materiality and imaginaries of technology over time After defining toy theory in general and conceptual terms Giddings examines different types of toys to explore shifting relationships between the microcosmic symbolic or mimetic content material and technical constitution and modes of play of toys and toy related artifacts on the one hand and prevailing macrocosmic technological paradigms and imaginaries on the other Taking a broad historical and genealogical view Giddings traces contemporary postdigital toy and play culture to precedents from the neolithic through to the Enlightenment to consumer culture from the early nineteenth century to the present day

Remaking Pacific Pasts
Diana Looser, 2014-10-31

Since the late 1960s drama by Pacific Island playwrights has flourished throughout Oceania Although many Pacific Island cultures have a broad range of highly developed indigenous performance forms including oral narrative clowning ritual dance and song scripted drama is a relatively recent phenomenon Emerging during a period of region wide decolonization and indigenous self determination movements most of these plays reassert Pacific cultural perspectives and performance techniques in ways that employ adapt and challenge the conventions and representations of Western theater Drawing together discussions in theater and performance studies historiography Pacific studies and postcolonial studies Remaking Pacific Pasts offers the first full length comparative study of this dynamic and expanding body of work It introduces readers to the field with an overview of significant works produced throughout the region over the past fifty years including plays in English and in French as well as in local vernaculars and lingua francas The discussion traces the circumstances that have given rise to a particular modern dramatic tradition in each site and also charts routes of theatrical circulation and shared artistic influences that have woven connections beyond national borders This broad survey contextualizes the more detailed case studies that follow which focus on how Pacific dramatists actors and directors have used theatrical performance to critically engage the Pacific's colonial and postcolonial histories Chapters provide close readings of selected plays from Hawai'i Aotearoa New Zealand New Caledonia Kanaky and Fiji that treat events figures and legacies of the region's turbulent past Captain Cook's encounters the New Zealand Wars missionary contact the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy and the Fiji coups The book explores how in their remembering and retelling of these pasts theater artists have interrogated and revised repressive and marginalizing models of historical understanding developed through Western colonialism or exclusionary indigenous nationalisms and have opened up new spaces for alternative historical narratives and ways of knowing In so doing these works address key issues of identity genealogy representation political parity and social unity encouraging their audiences to consider new possibilities for present and future action This study emphasizes the contribution of artistic production to social and political life in the contemporary Pacific demonstrating how local play production has worked to facilitate processes of creative nation building and the construction of modern regional imaginaries Remaking Pacific Pasts makes valuable contributions to Pacific literature world theater history Pacific studies and postcolonial studies The book opens up to comparative critical discussion a geopolitical region that has received little attention from theater and performance scholars extending our understanding of the form and function of theater in different cultural contexts It enriches existing discussions in postcolonial studies about the decolonizing potential of literary and artistic endeavors and it suggests how theater might function as a mode of historical enquiry and debate adding to discussions about ways in which Pacific histories might be developed challenged or recalibrated Consequently the book stimulates new discussions in Pacific studies where theater has to date suffered from a lack of critical exposure Carefully researched and original in its approach Remaking Pacific Pasts will appeal to scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduate students in theater and performance studies and Pacific Islands studies it will also be of interest to cultural historians and to specialists in cultural studies and postcolonial studies Calling All Minds Temple Grandin,

Ph.D.,2019-04-30 From world renowned autism spokesperson scientist and inventor Temple Grandin a book of personal stories inventions and facts that will blow young inventors minds and make them soar Have you ever wondered what makes a kite fly or a boat float Have you ever thought about why snowflakes are symmetrical or why golf balls have dimples Have you ever tried to make a kaleidoscope or build a pair of stilts In Calling All Minds Temple Grandin explores the ideas behind all of those questions and more She delves into the science behind inventions the steps various people took to create and improve upon ideas as they evolved and the ways in which young inventors can continue to think about and understand what it means to tinker to fiddle and to innovate And laced throughout it all Temple gives us glimpses into her own childhood tinkering building and inventing More than a blueprint for how to build things in Calling All Minds Temple Grandin creates a blueprint for different ways to look at the world And more than a call to action she gives a call to imagination and shows readers that there is truly no single way to approach any given problem but that an open and inquisitive mind is always key Praise for Calling All Minds An impassioned call to look at the world in unique ways with plenty of practical advice on how to cultivate a curious inquiring imaginative mind Kirkus Reviews Both practical and inspirational this useful book describes an overall approach to viewing the world creatively as exemplified by the numerous projects and supporting material provided here VOYA Grandin offers a nuanced perspective on the qualities of a successful inventor notably a sense of wonder and curiosity careful observation and the willingness to learn from mistakes Publishers Weekly Puppetry ,1938 Maori Music Mervyn McLean,1996 Maori music records and analyses ancient Maori musical tradition and knowledge and explores the impact of European music on this tradition Mervyn McLean draws on diverse written and oral sources gathered over more than 30 years of scholarship and field work that yielded some 1300 recorded songs hundreds of pages of interviews with singers and numerous eye witness accounts The work is illustrated throughout with photos and music examples The Father: A Revenge Niklas Frank,2021-07-27 Niklas Frank was just seven years old when his father Hans Frank Hitler's legal adviser and Governor General of occupied Poland was executed at Nuremberg as a Nazi war criminal Throughout his life Niklas has attempted to come to terms with the enormity of the crimes his father committed and this remarkable book traces how after years of research he uncovered the extent of the horror unleashed by the man who was known as the butcher of Poland The Father is an extraordinary account of a scarred son struggling to comprehend the depravity of the acts that were committed by his father Whereas other descendants of Hitler s henchmen and co collaborators have tried to explain or to forget the crimes of their forebears Niklas s disgust for his father s actions is unremitting This book is his attempt to seek revenge Featuring forewords by Philippe Sands and Sir Ian Kershaw The Father is by turns shocking twisted and heart rending a devastating settling of accounts written by a son addressing his father as he pictures him burning in the eternal fires of hell Encyclopedia of Media and Propaganda in Wartime America Martin J. Manning, Clarence R. Wyatt, 2010-12-20 This fascinating compilation of reference entries documents the unique relationship between mass media propaganda and the U S military a relationship that began in the period before the American Revolution and continues to this day sometimes cooperative sometimes combative and always complex The Encyclopedia of Media and Propaganda in Wartime America brings together a group of distinguished scholars to explore how war has been reported and interpreted by the media in the United States and what effects those reports and interpretations have had on the people at home and on the battlefield Covering press U S military relationships from the early North American colonial wars to the present wars in Iraq and Afghanistan this two volume encyclopedia focuses on the ways in which government and military leaders have used the media to support their actions and the ways in which the media has been used by other forces with different views and agendas The volumes highlight major events and important military political and cultural players offering fresh perspectives on all of America s conflicts Bringing these wars together in one source allows readers to see how media affected the conflicts individually but also understand how the use of the various forms of media print radio television film and electronic have developed and changed over the years The Man-made World Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1914 Dictionary of Puppetry Alexis Robert Philpott, 1969 The Man-Made World Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2007-03-01 Here is a cry for feminist revolution In this work Charlotte Perkins Gilman details how male dominated culture has through the very social devices that keep it in place conspired to produce greater human suffering than is truly necessary In this landmark work she explains how economic status mobility and autonomy are at the root of the subjugation of women worldwide For anyone wanting to understand the feminist movement how far it has come and how much of its ambition is yet unfulfilled The Man Made World is a fascinating work of philosophy and biting social commentary American writer and social reformer CHARLOTTE PERKINS GILMAN 1860 1935 was a pioneer of modern feminism She is best remembered for her short story The Yellow Wallpaper 1890 Angela Carter Aidan Day, 1998-06-15 The first full scale study of Angela Carter s fiction with a broad though scholarly appeal Cognition In Children Usha Goswami, 2014-04-04 This textbook aims to provide a selective but representative review of work in cognitive development grouped around themes that are familiar from textbooks of adult cognition The book focuses on the question of what develops rather than on why it develops The findings of a given experimental study what develops are generally fixed but the interpretation of what particular findings mean why is fluid Some of the experiments discussed in this book have alternative explanations and every student interested in children's cognition is invited to develop their own ideas about what different studies mean The Man-made World, Or, Our Androcentric Culture Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1914 From Quills to Tweets Andrea J. Dew, Marc A. Genest, S. C. M. Paine, 2019-12-02 While today's presidential tweets may seem a light year apart from the scratch of quill pens during the era of the American Revolution the importance of political communication is eternal This book explores the roles that political narratives media coverage and evolving communication technologies have played in precipitating shaping and concluding or prolonging wars and revolutions over the course of US history The case studies begin with the Sons of Liberty in the era of the American Revolution cover American wars in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and conclude with a look at the conflict against ISIS in the Trump era Special chapters also examine how propagandists shaped American perceptions of two revolutions of international significance the Russian Revolution and the Chinese Revolution Each chapter analyzes its subject through the lens of the messengers messages and communications technology media to reveal the effects on public opinion and the trajectory and conduct of the conflict The chapters collectively provide an overview of the history of American strategic communications on wars and revolutions that will interest scholars students and communications strategists
