

2022 MISS AMERICA STATE AND LOCAL CANDIDATE APPLICATION AND AGREEMENT

THE MISS _____ COMPETITION

Application and Agreement for Candidate and Titleholder Participation in a Local and/or State Competition in the Miss America Organization Program

Section 1: Responsibilities and Obligations

1.1. The Parties. The Miss _____ ("State Organization") a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of _____ and a licensee of the Miss America Organization, Inc. ("MAO or National Organization"). The State Organization licenses Local Organizations ("Local Organizations") the authority to conduct Local Competitions ("Local Competitions") under a State License and Copyright and Trademark Limited Use Agreement ("License") between the State Organization and MAO.

1.2. Application and Agreement. This Application and Agreement (the "Agreement") is between _____ ("Candidate or Titleholder [when appropriate]") competing as _____ and the State Organization named in Section 1.1 and the headings of this agreement which set out the terms and conditions under which the Candidate may compete at Local or Preliminary Competitions within the State Organization's License, and, if chosen as a titleholder, to compete in the State Competition.

1.3. The Program. State Organization operates a Program ("Program") offering scholarship assistance, the opportunity to advance Candidate's educational goals, make an impact with a personal Social Impact Initiative ("SII") and develop career skills and opportunities for young women within the State pursuant to the mission, vision, and policies of MAO, which may change from time to time with no notice to Candidate or Titleholder.

1.3.1. Intellectual Property. State Organization and MAO have made substantial investments and have developed a valuable identity for the unique titles, marks, symbols, and elements of the Program and have achieved national and international recognition. Collectively, this intellectual property is known as the "Brand." Activities that, in the sole opinion of State Organization and/or MAO, may be damaging to the image of MAO, its State Organizations, National Partners, Sponsors, and the MAO Brand are not permitted. Should you have any questions as to whether it is acceptable for you to participate in an activity in an Official Capacity of the Brand, please contact your State Executive Director for guidance.

Tice,2012-04-17 Higher education is an unlikely venue for showcasing ideals of femininity yet campus beauty pageants have increased in popularity in a cultural marketplace conjoining personal empowerment with beauty and style Karen Tice examines the desires and racial and political agendas that propel students onto collegiate catwalks A Feeling of Belonging Shirley Jennifer Lim,2006 When we imagine the activities of Asian American women in the mid twentieth century our first thoughts are not of skiing beauty pageants magazine reading and sororities Yet Shirley Jennifer Lim argues these are precisely the sorts of leisure practices many second generation Chinese Filipina and Japanese American women engaged in during this time In A Feeling of Belonging Lim highlights the cultural activities of young predominantly unmarried Asian American women from 1930 to 1960 This period marks a crucial generation the first in which American born Asians formed a critical mass and began to make their presence felt in the United States Though they were distinguished from previous generations by their American citizenship it was only through these seemingly mundane American activities that they were able to overcome two dimensional stereotypes of themselves as kimono clad Orientals Lim traces the diverse ways in which these young women sought claim to cultural citizenship exploring such topics as the nation's first Asian American sorority Chi Alpha Delta the cultural work of Chinese American actress Anna May Wong Asian American youth culture and beauty pageants and the achievement of fame of three foreign born Asian women in the late 1950s By wearing poodle skirts going to the beach and producing magazines she argues they asserted not just their American ness but their humanity a feeling of belonging National Catalog of Scholarships and Other Financial Aids for Students Entering College ,1964 Queen for a Day Marcia Ochoa,2014-05-19 Queen for a Day connects the logic of Venezuelan modernity with the production of a national femininity In this ethnography Marcia Ochoa considers how femininities are produced performed and consumed in the mass media spectacles of international beauty pageants on the runways of the Miss Venezuela contest on the well traveled Caracas avenue where transgender women transformistas project themselves into the urban imaginary and on the bodies of both transformistas and beauty pageant contestants misses Placing transformistas and misses in the same analytic frame enables Ochoa to delve deeply into complex questions of media and spectacle gender and sexuality race and class and self fashioning and identity in Venezuela Beauty pageants play an outsized role in Venezuela The country has won more international beauty contests than any other The femininity performed by Venezuelan women in high profile widely viewed pageants defines a kind of national femininity Ochoa argues that as transformistas and misses work to achieve the bodies clothing and makeup styles and postures and gestures of this national femininity they come to embody Venezuelan modernity

Fashioning Diaspora Vanita Reddy, 2016-02 The author maps how transnational itineraries of Indian beauty and fashion shaped South Asian American cultural identities and racialized belonging from the 1990s through the first decade of the twenty first century She observes how diasporic subjects engage with and respond to various encounters with Indian beauty and fashion She examines a range of literature visual art and live performance such as novels by Bharati Mukherjee and Jhumpa Lahiri young adult literature performance art by Shailja Patel beauty and adornment practices as well as objects of popular culture including an Indian American fashion doll Reddy challenges fashion and beauty as a set of dematerialized overly commodified cultural practices She argues instead that beauty and fashion structure South Asian Americans uneven access to social mobility capital and citizenship and she demonstrates their varying capacities to produce social attachments across national class racial gender and generational divides

Kindergarten and First Grade ,1923 The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition Maryanne L. Fisher, 2017-08-14 While women are generally perceived to be less competitive than men women compete in many ways and in a variety of situations Women try to make themselves look more attractive to draw the attention of a desirable mate They will use gossip as a form of informational warfare to influence reputations They compete as mothers to gain access to resources that directly influence the health of their children They use selfies posted on social media to manipulate others perceptions Women compete all of their lives in the womb through adolescence and adulthood and into their elder years The topic of women s competition has gained significant momentum over the years Edited by Maryanne L Fisher The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition provides readers with direct evidence of this growth and is one of the first scholarly volumes to focus specifically on this topic Fisher and her team of contributors offer a definitive worldview of the current state of knowledge regarding competition among women today Many of the chapters are grounded within an evolutionary framework allowing for authors to investigate the adaptive nature of women s competitive behaviors motivations and cognition Other chapters rely on alternative frameworks with contributors also asserting that socio cultural forces are the culprit shaping women s competitive drives Additionally several contributors focus their attention on issues faced by adolescent girls and explore the developmental trajectories for young women through adulthood Designed to serve as a source of inspiration for future research and direction The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition is a stand out scholarly text focusing on the many competitive forces driving women today

Constructing Capitalisms Roderick Martin, 2013-03-28 The balance of economic power in Europe is shifting eastwards Poland the Czech Republic Hungary and Romania have all seen increases in their contributions to international trade and in the rate of GDP growth whilst other countries have seen declines and firms in these Central and Eastern European economies are becoming increasingly influential participants in international production systems centred largely on Germany This book presents an up to date theoretically informed analysis of how these four countries have developed distinctive business systems since the political revolutions that transformed this region in 1989 combining the structures of liberal market capitalism established in the 1990s with practices established earlier Influenced by the socialist inheritance of communism and increasingly diverse sources of capital different forms of capitalism developed less responsive to shareholder interests and more responsive to managerial and national strategic interests This book concentrates on changing patterns of ownership and control means of capital accumulation the relations among multinationals regional enterprises and governments and the role of the state Whilst recognizing the role of multinationals in generating export led growth the book emphasizes the central role of government at national and international level The forms of capitalism under construction differ from expectations common in the 1990s combining elements from both US UK and continental European models of capitalism
