Complexity and Simplicity in Science Education David Geelan, Kim Nichols, Christine V. McDonald, 2022-01-25 This edited volume brings together a broad range of international science education studies focusing on the interplay of teaching and learning science. It recognizes the complexity present in today's education associated with major science-related issues faced by society such as climate change, diseases, and pandemics, global conflicts over energy, food, and water. The studies discussed in this volume are focused on presenting different opportunities to teach these convoluted matters in order to find simplicity within the complexity and make it accessible to learners. They bring together the challenges of preparing the students of today to become scientifically informed citizens of tomorrow.

Handbook of Research on Science Learning Progressions Hui Jin, Duanli Yan, Joseph Krajcik, 2024-07-30 Gathering contributions from leading scholars around the world, this handbook offers a comprehensive resource on the most recent advances in research surrounding the theories, methodologies, and applications of science learning progressions. Researchers and educators have used learning progressions to guide the design and alignment of curriculum, instruction, and assessment and to help students learn scientific knowledge and practices in a coherent and connected way across multiple years. This handbook lays out the development and current state of research in this field across four sections: learning progression theories and methodologies; learning progressions to promote student learning; teachers' learning and use of learning progressions; and new technology in learning progression research. Featuring internationally recognized experts in learning progression research as well as up-and-coming voices, the Handbook of Research on Science Learning Progressions offers a defining new resource for researchers, teachers, and teacher educators and curriculum and assessment developers in science education.

Public Policy Praxis Randy S. Clemons, Mark K McBeth, 2020-03-03 Public administration and policy analysis education have long emphasized tidiness stages and rationality but practitioners frequently must deal with a world where objectivity is buffeted by and sometimes defeated by value conflict. Politics and policy are messy and power explains much more about the policy process than does rationality. Public Policy Praxis now in a thoroughly revised fourth edition uniquely equips students to better grapple with ambiguity and complexity. By emphasizing mixed methodologies the reader is encouraged through the use of a wide variety of policy cases to develop a workable and practical model of applied policy analysis. Students are given the opportunity to try out these globally applicable analytical models and tools in varied case settings e.g. county city federal international plus urban and rural while facing wide ranging topics: starving farmers and the red panda in Nepal e-cigarettes GMOs the gig economy and opioid abuse that capture the diversity and reality of public policy analysis and the intergovernmental and complex nature of politics. The fourth edition expands upon its thorough exploration of specific tools of policy analysis such as stakeholder mapping content analysis group facilitation narrative analysis cost benefit analysis futuring and survey analysis. Along with teaching how to the authors discuss the limitations the practical political problems and the ethical problems associated with different techniques and methodologies. Many new cases have been added along with clear instructions on how to do congressional research and a Google Trends analysis. An expanded online Teaching Appendix is included for adopters offering original cases answers to problems alternative approaches to case use teaching exercises student assignments pedagogical ideas and supplemental material directly tied to concepts covered in the text. With an easily accessible and conversational writing style Public Policy Praxis is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in public policy analysis community planning leadership social welfare policy educational policy family policy and special seminars.
