S. Tavares, Steven Fernandes, 2022-12-05      Computational Engineering of Historical Memories Andrea Nanetti, 2022-09-26
 Nanetti outlines a methodology for deploying artificial intelligence and machine learning to enhance historical research Historical events are the treasure of human experiences the heritage that societies have used to remain resilient and express their identities Nanetti has created and developed an interdisciplinary methodology supported by practice based research that serves as a pathway between historical and computer sciences to design and build computational structures that analyse how societies create narratives about historical events This consilience pathway aims to make historical memory machine understandable It turns history into a computational discipline through an interdisciplinary blend of philological accuracy historical scholarship history based media projects and computational tools Nanetti presents the theory behind this methodology from a humanities perspective and discusses its practical application in user interface and experience An

Handbook of Liberal Naturalism Mario De Caro, David Macarthur, 2022-03-14 The central question of naturalism the relation of philosophy to science was one of the defining strands of twentieth century thought and remains a major source of debate and controversy Today many argue that philosophy should fold itself into the sciences especially the natural sciences Liberal naturalists argue that such scientific naturalism demands reductive and Procrustean conceptions of knowledge and reality Moreover many philosophical problems are beyond the scope of the sciences such as the nature of persons the normativity of the space of reasons and how best to understand the peculiar mix of objectivity and subjectivity of ethics and art The Routledge Handbook of Liberal Naturalism is the first collection to present a comprehensive overview of liberal naturalism a philosophical outlook that lies between scientific naturalism and supernaturalism Comprising 37 chapters by an international team of contributors it examines important cutting edge topics including what is liberal naturalism is metaphysics a viable project naturalism in the history of philosophy including Hume Dewey and Quine contemporary liberal naturalists such as P F

Strawson John McDowell Hilary Putnam and John Rawls related kinds of naturalism including subject naturalism common sense naturalism and biological naturalism the bearing of liberal naturalism on contemporary debates in epistemology philosophy of mind ethics and aesthetics Essential reading for students and researchers in all areas of philosophy this volume will be of particular interest for those studying philosophical naturalism philosophy of science metaphysics epistemology philosophy of mind ethics and aesthetics

ECMLG 2017 13th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Martin Rich, 2017-12-11 these Proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 13th European Conference on Management Leadership and Governance ECMLG 2017 hosted this year by the Cass Business School City University of London on 11-12 December 2017. The Conference Chair is Dr Martin Rich. The conference will be opened with a keynote address by Dr Helen Rothberg from Marist College Poughkeepsie USA with a speech entitled 'Everything I Know about Leadership I Learned as a Bartender'. On the second day the keynote will be delivered by Dr Amanda Goodall from City University of London on the topic of 'Why we need core business experts as leaders'. ECMLG is a well established platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of Management Leadership and Governance. At the same time it provides an important opportunity for members of the community to come together with peers, share knowledge and exchange ideas. With an initial submission of 160 abstracts, after the double blind peer review process there are 61 academic papers, 8 PhD Papers and 2 Work in Progress papers in these Conference Proceedings. These papers reflect the truly global nature of research in the area with contributions from Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lithuania, Malaysia. The Study of Science and Religion Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm, 2018-06-06. The main aim of this book is to contribute to the relationship between science and religion. This book aims to do constructive theological work out of a particular cultural context. The point of departure is contemporary Swedish religion and worldviews. One focus is the process of biologization, i.e. how the worldviews of the general public in Sweden are shaped by biological science. Is there a gap between Swedes in general and the perceptions of Swedish clergy? The answer is based on sociological studies on science and religion in Sweden and the United States. Furthermore, the book contains a study of Swedish theologians from Nathan Söderblom to the present Archbishop Antje Jackelén and their shifting understanding of the relation between science and religion. The philosophical aspects of this relation are given special consideration. What models of the relation inform the contemporary scholarly discussion? Are science and religion in conflict, separate or in mutual creative interaction? Pitman's Journal of Commercial Education, 1892. Thinking Ethnographically Paul Atkinson, 2017-05-08. Written by a leading authority, this book discusses a wide range of analytic ideas that can and should inform ethnographic analysis. In introducing the notion of granular ethnography, it argues for an approach to qualitative research that is sensitive to the complexities of everyday social life. A much needed antidote to superficial research and analysis, the text deals not merely with the practical methods of fieldwork but with the far more ambitious enterprise of turning ethnographic data into productive ideas and concepts. Paul Atkinson enables us not merely to do ethnography but truly to think ethnographically. His book will prove invaluable to students and researchers across the social sciences. Knowledge and Change in African Universities Michael Cross, 2017-01-28. Besides the ongoing concern with the epistemological and theoretical hegemony of the West in African academic practice, the book aims at understanding how knowledge is produced and controlled through the interplay of the politics of knowledge and current intellectual discourses in universities in Africa In this regard the book calls for African universities to relocate from the position of object to subject in order to gain a form of liberated epistemological voice more responsive to the social and economic complexities of the continent In itself this is a critical expos of contemporary practices in knowledge advancement in the continent Broadly the book addresses the following questions How can African universities reinvent knowledge production and dissemination in the face of the dominant Eurocentricism so pervasive and characteristic of academic practice in Africa to enhance their relevance to the contexts in which they operate How can such change particularly at knowledge production and distribution levels be undertaken without falling into an intellectual and discursive ghettoization in the global context What then is the role of academics policy makers and curriculum and program designers in dealing with biases and distortions to integrate policies knowledge and pedagogy that reflect current cultural diversity both local and global Against this backdrop while some contributions in this book argue that emancipatory epistemic voice in African universities is not yet born or it is struggling with little success many dissenting voices charge that if Africans do not take responsibility and construct knowledge strategies for their own emancipation who will
